Introduction

The starting point for the development of this Audley family history is the references to ‘Audley of Inistioge’ in Chapter 20 of Audley Pedigrees by A L. Reade. It would appear that he intended to write further chapters to Audley Pedigrees, which would have included these families, had it not been for the death of George Audley, for whom ‘ Audley Pedigrees' was compiled. Included in the research notes of A L Reade deposited at the University of Liverpool, Sydney Jones Library, Special Collections Department, are the written pedigrees for this family.

To date there have been no links identified between these Audley family's and any other Audley family. This branch of the Audley family has spread far and wide.

- The family started in Inistioge, County Kilkenny, Ireland, and parts of the family are still living in The Rower, County Kilkenny. Ireland.
- Another branch of the family moved through Liverpool to Staffordshire, England
- One member of the family worked for many years in an Orphanage in London.
- Parts of the family emigrated to America, and the branch that lived in New Haven, Connecticut, USA, has been identified in the US Federal Censuses from 1860 to 1940.

Earliest Records of the Audley Surname in County Kilkenny

The earliest record of the Audley Surname in County Kilkenny is a Deed dated on the 1st October 1753 which shows that:

- a Thomas Audley, of Ballycommon, a Farmer was working 75 acres of land in the Townland of Balynunry (The next Townland to the South West of The Rower) from the 25th March 1753.
- The Deed was witnessed by a Charles Audley of The Rower, a Farmer.

The above two people with the surname Audley are not recorded in the summary or detailed family trees in this file, and their relationship to each other is not known. It is considered that the Charles Audley above is unlikely to be {F1} who would have been aged 15 or 16 in 1753.

A second Deed dated on the 10th August 1796 refers to:

- A Thomas Audley of Knockatore a Farmer
- A Charles Audley of Knockatore, a Farmer.

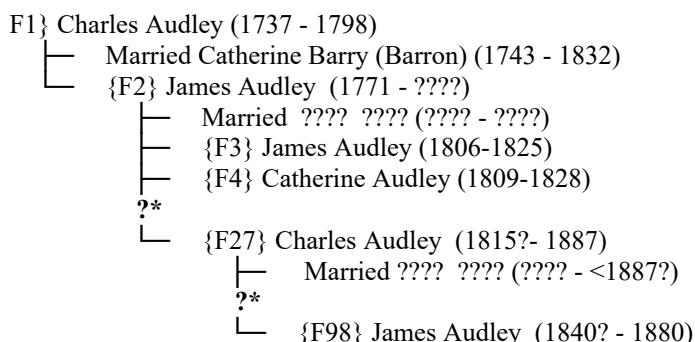

Again the relationship between the above Thomas Audley and Charles Audley is not known and it is not known whether they are the same Thomas and Charles Audley recorded in the Deed some 43 years earlier. However in this Deed it is possible for the Charles Audley referred to in the deed to be {F1}

The details of both the above Deeds are recorded in the 'Supporting Information' section of this file

There is no known relationship between {F97} & {F1}. The information about {F97} is held under Family 1 for convenience until more information is known about him.

Family 2

Family 2 – Unconnected Audley Persons

(This section is a list of individuals and short family trees that have yet to be linked to their exact position in Family 2 above)

Family 3

Detailed Narratives

Family 1

This branch of the Audley family is based on:

- a single Headstone at The Rower, referred to Headstone No 2, in the details of Headstones in the “Monument Inscriptions at The Rower”, Page 115 in the narrative section.
- References to the Townland of Rosssnanowl, County Kilkenny.

Of all the Audley Families described in this document this family contains the earliest recorded date, namely 1737/38.

{F1} CHARLES AUDLEY born 1737/38 and was killed in the United Irishmen Rebellion, in the 1798 Insurrection. Married to CATHERINE BARRY (or BARRON). She was born 1743/44 and Died on the 10th August 1832, aged 88 years. They had issue:

He is not recorded in the 1826 Tithe Applotment Books but he is recorded in the 1851 Griffith's Valuation of Ireland, as farming land in the Townland of Rosssnanowl. This would suggest that he was younger than {F2}.*)

He Died unmarried a Farmer's Son on the 23rd January 1880, aged 40 at Rosssnenole (Rosssnanowl) in the Parish of Dysertmoon, County Kilkenny The informant of his Death was a Charles Audly (sic), although no relationship is given in the Death Registration record.

{F97} SAMUEL AUDLEY A Mason at the time of his marriage in 1786. According to the 1826 Tithe Applotment Books he farmed land in Ballycommon. (Comment: There is no known relationship between {F97} & {F1}. The information about {F97} is held under Family 1 for convenience until more information is known about him.)

At that time in the Street Directories of Liverpool a William Benson Lane is recorded as living at 65 Duke Street, Everton. This makes the informant on the Death Certificate {F17} Mary Audley*)
  - *There is also the record of a Thomas Audley, a Mason, who Married a Mary Doyle, (Otherwise Kervanagh), a Widow on the 24th October 1797, this conflicts with the Marriage date from A. ## 1931 Census of England

The 1931 Census of England was taken 26th April 1931 but was destroyed during WWII

1939 Registers

The 1939 Registers were created as the WW11 National Registration on the 29th September 1939

The 1939 Registers were created in 1939 for the issue of registration documents and ration books shortly after the commencement of World War 2. As they were produced after the start of the war they do not include people who were member of; conscripted into and volunteered for the Armed Services. Additionally After World War 2 these registers were used as the registration of people into the newly formed National Health Service. These registers were 'updated' by the National Health Service until 1991 when the National Health Service Registration was computerised. The updates made under the National Health Service typically include; changes of surname by Marriage, corrections to Christian names (for example changing initials to full names) and recording the Deaths of individuals listed in the registers. No changes of address are recorded are the Births of new individuals are not recorded.

The records of individuals are either open or closed. Open records can be viewed by the public and Closed records cannot be viewed by the public. Records are open if one of the following conditions applies:

- * The record is open if the person was born more than 100 years ago. This is the 100 year rule and means that progressively more records will be opened each year until they all become open in 2040.
- * The record is open if the person is deceased and the person's Death is recorded in the registers. In theory this means that the record for anyone listed in the registers and Died before 1991 should be open. However not all deaths before 1991 were recorded in the registers, and people who were in the Armed Forces in 1939 are not listed in the registers.

Records that are not open are closed. However members of the public can make requests to the National Archive at Kew to open closed records. To do this they must be able to supply a copy of a Death Certificate and the National Archives must be able to relate this Death Certificate to a particular individual in the 1939 Registers. For example the Death Certificate has the address where the individual died and the 1939 Registers have the address where the individual was living in 1939 so not all requests may be successful

	The above is a potentially a very interesting piece of information as it may provide a link between the Audley Family of The Rower and of Wexford. It should be noted that there are references to Wexford in both Audley Families "E" and "F". If this person was 67 in 1885 he would have been born about 1818 Within Audley Family "F" there are the following 4 candidates (called Thomas) for being this person as follows: {F70} The above cannot be {F70} as {F70} is Born significantly later {F8} Is a possible candidate for the above as he was Born in 1813 {F11} This cannot be the above person even though he was Born in 1815/16 as he Died in 1884 before the above Court case. The main thing about this piece of information is that it provides a link between the Audley Family of Wexford and the Audley Family of The Rower, County Kilkenny

Ringwood, (The Rower)

History and Origins.

Ringwood is a Townland in The Rower that borders the rivers Barrow and Nore where the confluence of the rivers is. It is now an area of about 205 acres. Ringwood derived its name from a place in England as it was in the beginning owned by a British Landlord. The beautiful and impressive house stands above the bank of the rivers, where they meet. James Agar occupied this house in the 18th century. The Agar family originally came from Yorkshire in England. The family settled at Gowran Castle and inherited the name Clifton. James Agar became MP for Gowran, in 1776, and during that time he moved to Ringwood. He was an absentee landlord who was more interested in politics than farming, or looking after his tenants. In 1776 he became one of eighteen members of the Irish House of Commons. He earned the title Baron of Clifton and in 1781 he was elevated to Viscount Clifton.

The last of the Agars to own Ringwood was Lord Clifton, also known as Lord Callan, and Baron of Callan. He is buried at The Rower. Lord Callan was constantly fighting with Henry Flood, a great political leader from Burnchurch outside Callan. He was a prominent leader in the fight for Irish Independence. Callan challenged Flood to a duel. The duel took place at Dunmore in Co Kilkenny. Agar was shot in the left chest. He fell to the ground, screaming in agony and then died due to the wounds.

The Agar's had two other large houses in The Rower, one was Charlefield House, which may have been a dower house, in Tinnaslatty, for Lord Callan's daughter. The Grace family now lives there. The other house is Tinnascully house. In 1878 the Stephenson's, the present occupants of the house came to live in Ringwood,

The Audley Family in Ireland

Another absentee landlord employed the Audley Family as Land Agents. The Audley families were for generations Lord Agents for Viscount Clifton's Estate. Most of the lands in the Parish were in the Viscount Clifton Estate. The landlords were Lord and Lady Annally, they lived in Gowran Castle (where Gowran Racecourse is today)

The Audley families came from England and settled in The Rower, where the remaining family still resides. They collected all the rent in The Rower, brought it to Gowran Castle. They kept the rent books, and looked after any property Viscount Clifton had in the area, the last property to be disposed of was Ballyfereen Wood, in 1930. They have, in their keeping, documents, rent books, and part of a local Census from the 1830's. It gives a great insight into the names and occupations of those living locally. Among the occupations of people living in the area were Labourer, Farmer, Weaver, Boatman, Lime Burner, Carpenter, Clerk, Dairy Maid, Children's Maid, Flax Spinner, Gardener, Blacksmith, Servant, Nurse Tender, Tailor, Shore Woman, and Manteaux Maker. The number of children present in each house was between five and thirteen. The average age of those recorded was between ten and forty years. Anyone over fifty was described as worn out. The farmers mentioned in the Census of Ireland held between three and thirty acres. The Audley family still remain in the Parish, while the Agar's returned to Gowran, County Kilkenny, and then to England, as a result of the famine, poor revenue, a lack of interest in the area, and the decline of the landlord system.

(The last Annally was Liah Georgina Augusta Constance, 1862-1944 Hon. Lilah Georgiana Augusta Constance Agar-Ellis was Born on the 6th August 1862.1 She was the Daughter of Henry Agar-Ellis, 3rd Viscount Clifden and Eliza Horatia Frederica Seymour.1 She married Sir Luke White, 3rd Baron Annaly of Annaly and Rathcline, Son of Sir Luke White, 2nd Baron Annaly of Annaly and Rathcline and Emily Stuart, on the 24th July 1884 in St. James's, Westminster, London, England.1 She died on the 27th January 1944 at age 81.2

Her married name became White. Through her Marriage, Hon. Lilah Georgiana Augusta Constance Agar-Ellis was styled as Baroness Annaly of Annaly and Rathcline on the 16th March 1888.

and Baroness Annally. The last to do business in Gowran was a relative of the Annally family, William White.

Gowran Castle, Gowran, Co Kilkenny was built in 1713 by James Agar, Grand Father of the 1st Viscount Clifton. This was demolished in 1816 by the 2nd Viscount, being then in bad repair; and replaced by a compact classical house built during the course of the next 3 years, to the design of William Robertson of Kilkenny. Inherited by the Daughter of the 3rd Viscount who Married the 3rd Lord Annaly; sold by 4th Lord Annaly ca 1955."

Information in Letters to A.L. Reade from members of Family 2.

Written by James Audley (F22) 26th June 1925.

It would be mere guesswork for me to suggest what part of England our ancestors went from to Ireland. My Cousin Robert (F7) at Knockatore if living would be more likely to know than anyone else I can think of. As far as I know, my Father's eldest Brother George (F5) was the first of the family to farm Knockatore and Ballycommon, where a good part of the land is, though the Farm House is at Knockatore. My Grandfather (F20) farmed at Ballinabarna in the same Parish (The Rower), but afterwards went to Cullentra - still in the same Parish - where he built a farmhouse for himself and the other members of his family, and was eventually followed there by his Son, Samuel (F46). My Uncle Thomas (F8) succeeded him at Ballinabarna.

Harriett Lane, a Daughter of (F19) Margaret Audley wrote in 1928

{F32} "My mother always told me that the Audley's came from Ireland and (illegible) to England. She used to be indignant when I described her people as Farmers and said that her Father Thomas Audley (F16) associated with the nobility."

Harriett Lane, a Daughter of (F19) Margaret Audley wrote in 1928'

{F96} Thomas and his {F16} Father helped to rebuild Churches and planned them''
(This could indicate that they were also masons, just like the Thomas who Married in 1795 to Mary Doyle otherwise Kailanagh. Because (F16) Thomas Audley, Married in 1803 I don't think that he is the same person as the Thomas who Married in 1795.)

Harriett Lane, a Daughter of (F19) Margaret Audley wrote in 1928'

A cousin (Sister) Deborah Audley was attached to St Vincent's Orphanage, Church Street, Kensington. She told me that my Grandparents were Landowners and that she had some of the land in Ireland but gave up all for her faith (RC)."

Harriett Lane, a Daughter of (F19) Margaret Audley wrote in 1928'

"{F16} Thomas Audley, landowner and farmer."

In a letter dated the 18th of October 1928 (F22) James Audley wrote the following '

'My Cousin Robert Henry informs me that there was a Thomas Audley, a Stone Mason, living somewhere in Ballyane, County Wexford, who he believes was a distant relative.'
(This Thomas could be either {F96} who lived in Wexford and who planned and rebuild Churches or {F16}, who lived in Ballyane

- The Townlands in the Civil Parish of Inistioge, County Kilkenny
