Introduction

The goal of this study was to link the 'Audley-Charles' family of the 20th Century to another branch of the 'Audley Family'. This has been achieved and it is believed that this family is related to 'Family 1' in 'Audley Family B' of Birmingham, and in particular to {B17} Elizabeth Audley (1706? – 1779) who married John Jee, of 'Family 1' in 'Audley Family B' is also described in Chapter VIII of the 'Audley Pedigrees' by A. L. Reade that was published in the 1930s. A simplified tree of the link between Family 1 in Audley Family B' and 'Audley Family HC' is given below

Simplified Family Tree linking 'Audley Family B' to 'Audley Family HC'

```

{B17} Elizabeth Audley (1706? – 1779)
├─ Married John Jee (??? – 1777)
├─ Mary Jee
│   └─ married Henry Smith
│       └─ Catherine Smith
│           └─ married {HC1} Thomas Charles
│               └─ {HC4} Abraham Charles's
│                   └─ married Hephzibah Jean Chalmers
│                       └─ {HC5} Henry Edward Audley-Charles. (1871 – 1927)

The first person to have 'Audley' and 'Charles' in his name is {HC5} Henry Edward Audley - Charles, Born Q1 in 1871. Whether his Father {HC4} Abraham Charles intended his Son to make 'Audley- Charles' his surname or whether he was intending him to use the 'Audley' name as one of his forenames we may never know but {HC5} did use 'Audley-Charles' as his surname. Audley being the Maiden (Birth name) of one of his Great Great Grandmother's.

{HC5} Henry Edward Audley - Charles was Born Q1 in 1871. His Mother Hephzibah Jean Charles neé Chalmers Died Q1 in 1871 (Presumably as a result of the Birth of her Son). In the 1871 Census of England his Father is described as a Widower and the Infant {HC5} is not recorded as living at the same address as his Father. Similarly in the 1881 Census of England {HC5} Henry Edward Audley-Charles is not recorded as living at the same address as his Father. {HC5} has not been identified in either the 1871 or the 1881 Censuses of England. {HC5} seems to have moved location on many occasions. We have seen it recorded that he emigrated in 1908 to Canada, possibly leaving his Wife and family behind. We have identified his Wife and youngest child in the 1911 Census of England living with her elderly mother, but have not identified where the rest of his children were living in 1911.

(Comment: Tracing Births; Marriages and Death for the 'Audley - Charles' surname is not straightforward. The earliest reference to the 'Audley-Charles' surname in the GRO Indexes is 1933 prior to that date all 'Audley-Charles' Births, Marriages and Deaths are recorded in the GRO Indexes are listed as though the surname was Charles. After 1933 to 1989 (the last reference checked) the Births, Marriages and Deaths of individuals with the Audley-Charles surname are indexed twice; firstly as 'Audley-Charles' and secondly as though the surname was 'Charles'.)

Audley as a Hyphenated Surname or Forename

Within this family one branch has taken the Audley and name and hyphenated it with the Charles surname to form the hyphenated Audley- Charles surname. In this situation all member of the family have the Audley-Charles surname. In the other branch of the family all members of the family have the Charles surname, but some but not all have the name Audley as a forename.

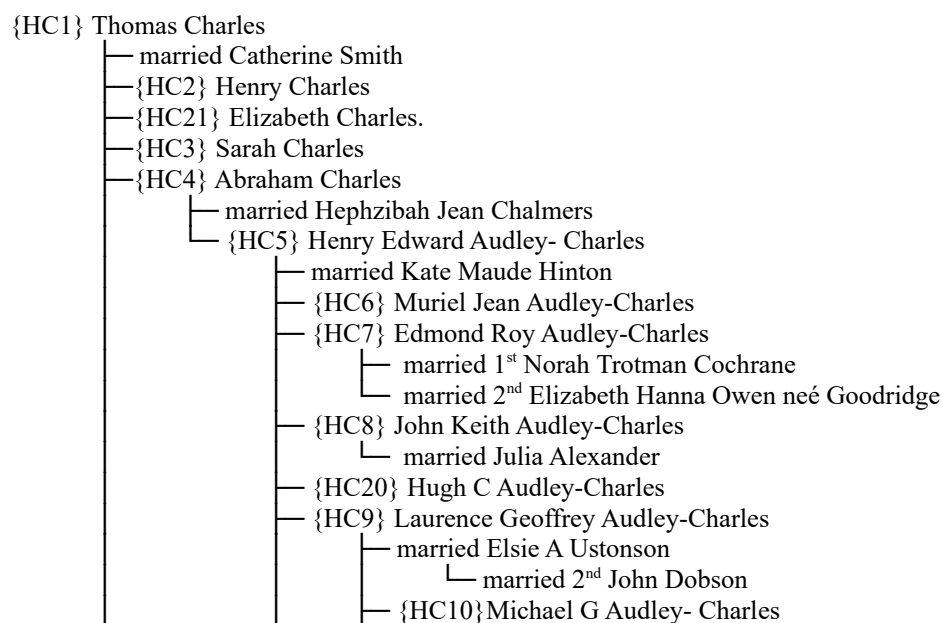

The following individuals have Audley- Charles as a Surname:

{HC5} Henry Edward Audley-Charles	{HC13} Philip E Audley-Charles

Of Orgreave House, Alrewas, Staffordshire, a Veterinary Surgeon in 1901. It would appear that he was declared bankrupt in 1907; see the references to him in the London Gazette, and the Edinburgh Gazette, in the 'Supporting Information' section of this file. He emigrated to Canada alone arriving in Quebec on 23rd July 1909, aboard the Empress of Ireland. Some but not all of his family emigrated to Canada over a number of years. In his Canadian Attestation papers for WW1, dated the 28th March 1917, he gives his next of kin as his Daughter, Muriel Jean Cruikshank. Also in his Attestation papers he indicates that he had served in the Scottish Yeomanry (Comment: Two of his children were recorded in the 1901 Census of England, as having been Born in Scotland.) He also sailed from Liverpool back to Canada via New York, arriving in New York on the 20th July 1918. On the passenger list he is described as a Soldier, and lists his Wife as Mrs K M Charles, of 95 St James Road, Brixton, London. The Probate Register for England and Wales for 1928, indicates that he Died on the 22nd April 1927, and is described as 'of Emo, Rainy River, Ontario Canada' and probate was granted at Lichfield on the 13th March 1928, to Charles Arthur Sangar Stockbroker. His effects were valued at £5. He married Q1 in 1892 at Lambeth, London to KATE MAUDE HINTON. She was of 95, St John's Road, Brixton SW London, in 1911.
