Introduction

Whilst this file is titled as “Unconnected Audley’s of Eastern Counties of Central England including London and surrounding areas of England” it is not typical Audley Family narrative. It is a List of people with the Audley surname or a derivative of from various official sources that have not as yet been linked to any of the documented Audley Families (Referenced A to Z) mainly of England and local geographical areas.

This file contains a number of Birth, Marriage and Death records from various sources of people with the Audley surname, and also records the information contained in the General Register Office’s (GRO) Indexes, and also other official sourced records. Where additional information has been identified that has been included under the relevant entry. All these GRO Index records have been recorded in the Central Eastern Counties of England.

The purpose of this ‘Unconnected Audley’s of Eastern Central Counties including London and surrounding areas file is a List of references to act as a ‘holding file’ until the individuals in this file can be connected to any of the documented ‘Audley Families’ or sufficient information has been identified to create a new ‘Audley Family’.

(The spelling of the AUDLEY surname appears to be flexible. The spelling mainly appears to be interchangeable with examples:- Adley, Addley, Aidley, Allday, Audly, Awdley, Awdly, Oddily & Odley and also with other ‘close’ name variant being Spellings.)

‘Audley Family UC’ – Unconnected Audley’s of Eastern Counties of England including London
The developed Audley Families that originated within this Geographical Area include

Audley Family QE’ of Essex, England’

‘Audley Family SA’ of Hackney, & Islington, England

‘Audley Family SB’ of Brighton & East End of London’

‘Audley Family SC’ of London England, Texas, Other States & New York City USA’

{UC115} Joseph Audley

Joseph Audley regarding Hearth Tax in 1662. (4 hearths. Listing status "s").

He lived at Broad Street Ward, St Bartholomew the Exchange Precinct in London. Have been on to Bart's Hospital archive who are going to do a search. If they find his address in Broad Street it might be worth my time finding his local church and see if he is in their records. Cutler of Saint Bartholomew by the Exchange, City of London. His probate date seems to be 22nd October 1678. A search of the Discovery section of the National Archives website using "Joseph Audley" (in quotes) as the search term gives the 14 results which may be relevant to you, including an entry for his Will.

Matthew Audley, Born 1707 about

Christ's Hospital enquiry:

Matthew Audley was not only a Master at the school but at one time was also a pupil.

His Father is Richard Audley

Mathew Audley (spelling as originally given, later as Matthew) was Baptised 13 April 1679, the Son of Richard Audley, Citizen and Cutler. Richard had died before April 1686 when Mathew was admitted as a pupil to Christ's Hospital, from the Parish of St Peter the Poor (St Peter le Poer, (demolished 1907)). Information about the school is available on the website www.christs-hospital.org.uk It is a charitable boarding foundation, accepting especially children of families in social, financial or other need. Mathew was presented to Christ's Hospital by the donation governor, Sir John Chapman, one of many benefactors of the school who would not necessarily have known the family personally. Mathew would have started at the preparatory school at Hertford before transfer at about the age of 12 to the senior school at Newgate Street in the City of London. Neither site remains, the boys having been moved to new buildings near Horsham in Sussex in 1902. He left Christ's Hospital in February 1696 for Trinity College, Oxford, where he gained a B.A. degree in 1700 and an M.A. (St Alban Hall) in 1703. He was Vicar of Laystone, Suffolk from 1707 to 1719 (ref the book Christ's Hospital Exhibitioners) until in 1719 he was appointed as Upper Grammar Master at Christ's Hospital, Newgate Street.

{UC366} (*MATTHEW AUDLEY, and Son of Richard Audley of London, pleb, of Trinity College. Matriculated on the 10th March 1696-7, aged 18, B.A. in 1700; M.A. from St Alban Hall in 1703, Curate of the united Parishes of St Mary, Abchurch, London, (with) and of St Lawrence Pountney, London, and Grammar- Master Christ's Hospital, London, in 1719, Curate and Lecturer of Rotherhithe, Surrey.)

The Court Minutes of 6 October 1719 read: 'And upon reading the petition of the Reverend Mr Audley and several testimonials of his ability, no other persons petitioning for the said place, the Court unanimously chose the said Mr Audley, Grammar Master, and Catechist in the room of the said Mr Mountfort at the salary of £120 from Michaelmas last and to dwell in the house belonging to the Master'.

On Friday 27 November 1719, he requested repairs of his house and he informed the Almoners that the son (John) of Samuel Mountfort (deceased) would provide books as needed in the Grammar School library. Mathew settled in quickly and the first school inspection in April 1720 reported that 'the boys were well versed in the books'. A similar report was made the following year, so there is no doubt that the teaching was sound.

However, there were several complaints against Mathew Audley, apparently of excessive discipline, during his years at Christ's Hospital as a teacher. In August 1720 he was calling boys out of other classes to correct them for catechism faults, disrupting lessons by other staff, and in October he was called before the Almoners for alleged severity in the correction of one of his boys. In January 1721 (modern date 1722) he had to apologise for alleged rudeness to the Treasurer, Sir George Merttins. In August 1722, there was a complaint of the 'frequent ill use of the children under his care'. He was severely reprimanded, warned, and promised 'an entire reformation'. In May 1724, there was a similar complaint, of 'divers neglects, irregularities in his conduct and duty to the great prejudice and ill example of the children under his care'. He was again rebuked, and he promised to behave himself for the future and to give no offence. Yet once more this happened in January 1724 (modern date 1725). In spite of such problems, the Governors made no attempt to dismiss him.

And in May 1725 the Almoners agreed that Matthew Audley 'the Son of Matthew Audley, Grammar Master, scholar at Trinity College, Oxford, would be allowed an exhibition of £3-6-8 per annum'.

Mathew Audley must have died between July and November 1725. Peter Selby of Trinity College, Cambridge, was appointed Under Grammar Master on 7 July 1725 and promoted to Upper Grammar Master on 11 November 1725. Mathew's Wife was granted payment of his salary until Christmas 1725. It is possible that she was named Mary, or this was one of the children, as a Mary Audley was appointed as a nurse (matron) in December 1726.

So in summary, Mathew Audley (1679-1725) was an Old Blue (1686-1696) and Teacher (effectively Head Master, as the senior Grammar School Master), 1719-1725. He was also associated as curate of St Mary Abchurch and St Laurence Pountney (1719) and as Curate and lecturer at Rotherhithe, Surrey.

{UC372} (MATTHEW AUDLEY, and Son of Mathew Audley of St Lawrence, London, Cler, Trinity College, Matriculated on the 25th February 1724-5, aged 17 (Reverend. M.A. of Rotherhithe, Died on the 20th February 1790.))

UC339: Richard Audley

If you look at Matthew Audley's time at Christ's Hospital you will see his Father, Richard Audley was a citizen (whatever that is) and Cutler who died in April 1686.

(Mention of him and a John Audley also in a list of members from 1575-1650, unfortunately do not know whether they were related. This shows that they both received the Freedom by Servitude which would normally be achieved by being an apprentice. This appears to be the case in 1625 for Richard but no year is listed for John. They received the Freedom of the Company (becoming Freemen of the Cutlers' Company) in 1632 and 1641 respectively.)

Do not have any other information on Richard Audley. Richard Audley Apprentice Cutler in London 1625.

If he was apprenticed aged 16 he would have been born in 1609. If aged 14 he would have been born in 1611 (One time of Lichfield??)

Richard Audley is linked to Chapter 17 of Audley Pedigrees?

{UC139} SAMPSON AWDLEY

This Sampson Audley relates to Chapter 13 of Audley Pedigrees

Sampson's younger son John was quite a well-known printer. (Could he have been the JOHN AWDLEY, who Matriculated, pens, From Christ's Easter 1560. One of these names R. of St Martin, Leicester in 1569.?)

The first reference we have to Sampson here is in Dec 1543, described as a King's Servant and a Verger of the Abbey, (Vergers would get the abbey ready for services, such as lighting candles and getting vestments ready), when he leased three tenements and a garden in the Sanctuary (the now open area in front of the west towers of the Abbey). In 1550 he leased a tenement with shops in St Margaret's churchyard and was described as Gentleman, so he seems to have had quite a lot of money. We don't know what position he held in the royal household.

He married Letys Muckley at St Margarets Church, Westminster, on the 17 June 1548. No further information about the couple is given in marriage registers at this period. Sampson was buried in the church on 12 Dec 1559 but has no memorial or gravestone there.
