Introduction

The purpose of this Unconnected Audley People narrative is to enable family history researcher's to possibly identify whether or not the named Audley person could eventually belong to an established Audley Family.

(The spelling of the AUDLEY surname appears to be flexible. The spelling mainly appears to be interchangeable with examples:- Adley, Addley, Aidley, Allday, Oddily & Odley and also with other 'close' name variant being spellings.)

Whilst this file is referred to as 'Audley Family UL' it is not a true Audley Family. It is a List of references to the Audley surname from various records from Liverpool and the surrounding areas and elsewhere in England that have not as yet been linked to any of the documented Audley Families, 'A' 'AA' 'AB' 'AC' 'AD' 'P' 'R' 'T' of mainly Liverpool and surrounding local geographical areas Audley Families, The following developed Audley Families of Ireland have individuals, who lived in this area.

'Audley Family E' of Waterford and Wexford, Ireland

'Audley Family F' of Inistioge, County Kilkenny, Ireland

'Audley Family G' of Ireland and Liverpool, England

Where a narrative makes reference as ("ALR Page ???") it refers to the A. L. Reade's publication "Audley Pedigrees". Noted in the narrative is a brief summary of the known published historic origins of Audley people living in Liverpool.

Four Brothers left Shotwick in Cheshire around 1800 and moved to Liverpool in Lancashire. These four Brothers are the founding members of Audley Families 'AA', 'AB', 'AC' & 'AD'.

The starting point for the Audley Family history of Liverpool is that described as Pedigree "A" in Chapter 20 of the Audley Pedigrees by A. L. Reade. That document should be read in conjunction with those family history narratives: That Family, Family 'A' narrative contains the information particularly about the family while they were living in Cheshire. It should be noted that while the family was living in both Shotwick & Neston, Cheshire, their surname was recorded as "Allday". See narrative also of the "Allday Family of Birmingham" in the Audley Family History.com website

(She would have been aged 64 in 1891. i.e Born in 1827)

(Source: Death Certificate)

(Informant of the Death of Elizabeth Audley on the 16th September 1896 was:-

Elizabeth Morgan, present at the Death at 178, Upper Frederick Street.

(Comment: Alternatively. the only Marriage of a Thomas Audley and an Elizabeth we could find that might work is to an Elizabeth Cole Q4 in 1863, at Portsea 2b 733. But so far not noted, we know there is a connection between Portsea and Liverpool Audley's via Audley Family "AB" narrative. However, possibly this Thomas Audley, Died Q1 in 1880 at Portsea, Hampshire.)

Chapter 20 Audley of Liverpool

(Source: Audley Pedigrees by A. L. Reade.)

Censuses of England - Liverpool 1871, 1881, 1891, & 1901.

{UL55} 1871 A(nn) Audley
In the 1871 Census of England, there is recorded an A(nn) Audley of 68 Eastborne Street, a Servant, and an Unmarried Female, aged 18, and a Servant. (+1871 Census of England table)

{UL56} 1871 Joseph Audley
In the 1871 Census of England, there is recorded a Joseph Audley, A Patient and Widower, a Male aged 50 a Carter of Liverpool. (Comment: Could this Joseph Audley shown as a patient in the Southern Hospital be {AA32}??.)
(Comment: But we already have {AA32} living at House 2, Court 2, St James Street, with two daughters in the 1871 Census of England So that would mean he was in the 1871 Census twice, but how else can we prove it is the same person?? The interesting thing is he may be in the 1871 Census twice but where was he in the 1881 Census of England??.) (+1871 Census of England table)

{UL57} 1871 Mary Audley

In the 1871 Census of England, there is recorded a Mary Audley of Southwell Street, No 3 House, 2 Court, aged 12, and living with a family named 'Vickers', and noted as a relation namely, 'Grand Daughter'. Also living as 'Lodgers' at this house was a family named 'Dunham'. (Comment: There was a William Adderley (Born 1843/4) who married as (William Adley) to a 'Hannah Dunham', on the 7th June 1869, at St John the Baptist Church, Toxteth Park, Liverpool.) He had 2 Sisters, Mary and Ellen, Born 1845/6 & 1849/50. (Comment: Propose that it was the Daughter of the above). (Comment: Marriage is the Mary Audley in the 1871 Census of Southwell Street, Liverpool. Propose that her age in the 1871 Census of England and of Southwell Street is incorrect. It should be 2, and not 12. The basis of this is that the Mary Audley in the 1871 Census of England and of Southwell Street is the Mary J Hadley, in the 1881 Census of England and of Head Street, Liverpool. It is further proposed that the Catherine Vicars, in the 1871 Census of Southwell Street, is the Mother of Hannah Dunham, before she married John Vickers. The evidence for this is the 1851 Census of England of Llewellyn Street and the 1861 Census of England and of Jones Place, Liverpool.) Conclusion: Mary Audley gets her family name from her Father, William Adley or Adderley, and his Father, Francis Adderley who was Born in Ireland. (Comment: a John Dunham married an Ann J Berry, Q3 in 1865, St John the Baptist Church, Toxteth Park, Liverpool. Around this time there were Births of a Mary Audley, Q3 in 1865 and Q1 in 1870, who is {AA68} Mary Audley. (Comment: Our opinion of Mary J Hadley and Mary Audley is that they are the same person would suggest that in the 1871 Census of England Mary Audley should have been 2 years and not 12 years. If she really was 12 in 1871 she should have been described as a scholar.) (+1871 Census of England table)

{UL58} 1871 Sam Audley

In the 1871 Census of England, there was a Sam Audley recorded as a 'Stepson', and an Unmarried Male, aged 22 years, and Born in Scotland, and occupation noted as a Shipyard Labourer, who was living with a family named 'Sheely' at 6, Clayton Street, Liverpool, as well as Boarders lived in the house. (+1871 Census of England table) (Comment: Sam Audley did not show in the Scottish Intranet Census before 1871, but did show in the English 1871 Intranet Census.).

{UL59} 1871 Thomas Audley

In the 1871 Census of England there was a Thomas Audley recorded as an Unmarried Male aged 26 years, Born in Liverpool, Lancashire, and occupation noted as a Coal Miner, who was living at New Boston No 96, Haydock, Lancashire (Ecclesiastical District of St Thomas Ashton, Lancashire.) with a family named 'Scot'. His relationship to the Head of the Family is not noted. (Comment: Who is Thomas Audley aged 26, which gives Birth year about 1845?, New Boston 96, Lancashire??. There is a Thomas Audley, a Lodger noted in the 1861 Intranet Census showing a Birth year of 1841, could he be the same person. In the 1871 Intranet Census shows a Thomas, with a Birth year of 1848, and having parents of Thomas and Alise (sic) (as official record?). The GRO Index does not show a Marriage of a Thomas and Alice Audley??.) (+1871 Census of England table)

{UL60} 1881 Annie Audley

In the 1881 Census of England there was a Annie Audley recorded as an Unmarried Female aged 29 years, Born in Liverpool, Lancashire, and occupation noted as a Cook Domestic Servant, who was living at 2 Curzon Park, Chester St Mary On Hill, Cheshire, with a family named 'Layce', and another Housemaid Domestic Servant. (Comment: Annie Audley, Born April 1851 to April 1852. There is no candidate in A. L. Reade's Audley Pedigrees research. Is the Birth year correct, in 1881, she might have been recorded as being 31 years??.) (Could she have any connection to {UL52}?) (+1881 Census of England table)

{UL61} 1881 Philip L Audley

In the 1881 Census of England there was a Philip L Audley recorded as an Unmarried male aged 34 years, Born in Liverpool, Lancashire, and occupation noted as a 'Stock Share Broker', who was living at 5 Wells Street, London, Middlesex, in 1881, with a family named 'Head', as well as Boarders and Servants lived in the house.

(Comment: Philip L Audley would have been Born 1846 to 1847. There is no candidate in A. L. Reade's Audley Pedigrees research work, nor the GRO Index. He cannot be found either the 1891 or 1901 Censuses of England.

In the 1881 Intranet Census there is a Phillip L Audley,  Born 1847abt in Liverpool, and being a Boarder in the St James Parish of London.

A further problem with Philip L Audley is that cannot find him in any other Censuses of England and the only person found who was Born in Liverpool between 1845 and 1850 with the Christian names Philip L is a Philip Livesey Jee Born Liverpool Q1 in 1847.) (+1881 Census of England table)

(Comment: Given the notes above, could it be that Phillip was Born a Jee family member, but decided to take the Audley family name 1871+?? See the Audley Family "B" of Birmingham for more detail of the Audley - Jee Family.)

{UL62}

Henry Audley

In the 1891 Census of England there was a Henry Audley recorded as a Boarder, Married male aged 54 years, Born in Ireland, occupation noted as a 'Clerk'. (No record of his Wife is noted?) Who was living at 27 Duke Street, Liverpool, With a family named 'Kervan' and also 13 Boarders.

(Comment: He also shows also as a Boarder in the 1891 Intranet Census. However, in the 1881 Intranet Census there is a Henry Audley having been Born 1833abt in Ireland, a Lodger, living in Bermondsey, London. Is it possible there was a connection to this person??). (+1891 Census of England table)

{UL63}

Ellen Audley

In the 1901 Census of England there was a Ellen AudAley recorded as an Widow, and Female aged 60 years, Born in Liverpool, Lancashire, and with no occupation noted, who was living as a 'Visitor' at 9, Frank Street Toxteth Park, Liverpool. with a family named 'McHale'. In the 1911 Census of England at 4 Frank Street, Liverpool, there was no mention of Ellen Audley. (Comment: Therefore, when the Ellen Audley in above 1901 Census of England Died, her Death was believed to be not registered as Ellen Audley.) (+1901 Census of England table)
