Key Dates for the Barons Audley

- Pre 1312/13 G E Cokayne in his The Complete Peerage refers to the ancestors of {ZA12} Nicholas de Aldithley as 'may have been feudal Baron's.
- 1312/1313 {ZA12} NICHOLAS DE ALDITHLEY becomes LORD AUDLEY (ref The Complete Peerage Vol 1 page 339) In the write up in this family tree file we also accredit him as being the 1st Lord Audley of Heleigh.
- 1321 {ZA23} HUGH DE ALDITHLEY became BARON AUDLEY OF STRATTON AUDLEY, CO OXFORDSHIRE.
- 1336/7 {ZA24} HUGH DE ALDITHLEY became EARL OF GLOUCESTER in 1337, through his Marriage to Margaret de Clare. The title appears to have become extinct upon his Death in 1347 (Comment: It should be noted that {ZA24} Hugh de Aldithley never held the title nor was he in line to hold the title LORD AUDLEY.) (This short line is discussed in The Complete Peerage Vol 1 page 346)
- 1391 {ZA16} NICHOLAS DE ALDITHLEY 3rd LORD AUDLEY OF HELEIGH, Dies without issue. Nicholas' Sister {ZA14} Joan de Aldithley had Married Sir John Touchet. Their Grand Son {ZC2} SIR JOHN TOUCHET KNIGHT becomes the 4th LORD AUDLEY OF HELEIGH.
- 1405 {ZC2} SIR JOHN TOUCHET KNIGHT becomes the 4th LORD AUDLEY OF HELEIGH.
- 1538 {ZW5} THOMAS AUDLEY becomes first and last BARON AUDLEY OF WALDEN. There is no evidence to link the members of this branch of the Barons Audley to any other branch of the Barons Audley. In fact the Coat of Arms of Barons Audley of Walden is completely different from all other branches of the Barons Audley.
- 1544 {ZW5} THOMAS AUDLEY 1st & Last BARON AUDLEY OF WALDEN dies and the barony becomes 'extinct'
- 1616 {ZC20} GEORGE TOUCHET; 11th LORD AUDLEY OF HELEIGH in addition to the title Lord Audley became 1ST BARON AUDLEY OF ORIER in COUNTY ARMAGH, IRELAND and 1ST EARL OF CASTLEHAVEN in COUNTY CORK, IRELAND.

Thicknesse Line (1777 to 1942)

When reading the following family tree it should be noted that {ZC70} changes by “Royal License” his surname from Thicknesse to “Thicknesse – Touchet” on the 3rd April 1784 according to the Complete Peerage, 2nd Edition, and Volume 1 Page.345. Burke’s Peerage 1851 agrees with the Complete Peerage; however Burke’s Peerage 1970 Edition, states that he changed his name to Thicknesse- Tuchet. (One letter different between Touchet and Tuchet). Within this write up we have assumed the correct spelling to be “Touchet” although in numerous documents such as Census of England returns they are recorded, amongst other names as “Tuchet”

- A) {ZC2} SIR JOHN TOUCHET, KNIGHT, (4TH LORD AUDLEY OF HELEIGH), Born on the 23rd April 1371, the Son and Heir of {ZC1} John Touchet. In 15 Ric II (1391 – 1392) on the inquisition taken after the death of {ZA13} NICHOLAS LORD AUDLEY, his great uncle he was found to be one of his next heirs, and at that time twenty years of age.
Upon bearing the title of Lord Audley, he was ordered, in 4 Hen IV (1402 – 1403) (by reason of Owen Glendour's rebellion) to put a garrison in Llandovery in Wales; (Comment: He was the Keeper of Llandovery & Brecknock Castles.) and, the year after was associated with Richard Beauchamp, Earl of Warwick, in the defence of the Castle, Town, and Lordship of Brehnnoe, in Wales, for one whole year; having 100 men at arms, and 300 archers on horseback, assigned to them for that service. In 8 Hen IV (1406 - 1407) he was also one of the Barons, who in parliament considering that the succession of the crown of England had been settled the year before on Henry, Prince of Wales, and the heirs male of his body, with remainders to his brothers, Thomas, John and Humphrey, and the heirs male of their bodies, whereby the females were excluded; they at the King's request, with the consent of the commons, repealed the said act, setting their hands and seals to the succession, whereby the females were included. He became Baron Audley as Heir to his Grand Mother and Great Uncle. Sum to Parliament as Baron Audley from the 25th August 1404 to 1407. He died on December 19th 10 Hen IV (1408 - 1409) seised of the Manor of Sapurton, and a fourth part of that of Beggeworth, in com Gloucester as also divers other Manors and lands in the Marches of Wales, and Staffordshire, the Counties of Salop, Rutland, Derby, Devon, Somerset, and Wiltshire. He married ISABEL (Elizabeth) STAFFORD the Daughter of Humphrey Stafford and Alice Grenville. (For discussion about his Wife's name see the 'Supporting Evidence' for {ZC2}).
- a) {ZC3} JAMES TOUCHET, (5TH LORD AUDLEY OF HELEIGH), Born in 1398, only Son, Sum to Parliament, as Baron Audley, from 1420 to 1455. His Lordship was Chief Justice and Chamberlain of South Wales. The Lancastrian leader served under King Henry VI in France during the 100 years' War (1337 – 1453). By the time of the Battle of Blore Heath in 1459 in the Wars of the Roses, he had inherited large estates in Shropshire, Cheshire and Staffordshire, and had two homes at Heighley Castle in Madeley, and Red Castle near Market Drayton. JAMES LORD AUDLEY, in 7 Hen V (1419 – 1420) was in the Wars of France and in 8 Hen V (1420 - 1421) making proof of his age, had livery of his lands. Whereupon being summoned to parliament the same year as Lord Audley, he attended the King in that expedition then made into France, and was with him at the Siege of Molyn on the Seine. After which he returned with the King and his Queen to England; and on their Coronation February 24th, was Lord Almoner, in the room of the Earl of Cambridge, then absent. In 9 Hen V (1421 - 1422) he was again in the wars of France, and at the siege of Meaux; also the year after, on the decease of the King in France, he was one of the Lords that attended on the royal obsequies from Boys de Vincennes to Paris, and from thence to Calais and Dover, to the internment at Westminster. In 4 Hen VI (1425 - 1426), he was one of the Lords assembled in parliament at Leicester, who made oath to acquit themselves truly, justly, and indifferently, in all manners of matters, or quarrels, for the sure keeping of the King's peace, and redressing all proceedings contrary thereto. In 8 Hen VI (1429 - 1430) he had the chief command of some forces in the wars with France, taking ship with the King at Dover, April 27th, and, continuing there the year following, Thomas Earl of Perth, Edmund Earl of Mortaign, and Walter Lord Fitz- Walter were sent to aid him. (Mention of him has been found in a *Charter of 13th February 1455, wherein John Tuchet granted to his Father, James Tuchet, Lord Audley the Manor of Lycombray and associated lands in Great Aston, Shropshire for life, with remainder to his [John's] Son Humphrey).. In 35 Hen VI (1456 - 1457) the King fearing an insurrection, he was commissioned, on any emergency, to summon the sheriff and posse of the County of Hereford, to suppress any designs formed by his enemies. And continuing his loyalty to the said King, he was sent, in 37 Hen VI (1458 - 1459) to encounter Richard Nevil, Earl of Salisbury, who had assembled forces in behalf of the Duke of York, of whose proceedings, Hall and Hollinshed, in their Chronicles, give this account: the Lord Audley, He was known to have strong Lancastrian sympathies. It is likely that these loyalties were derived from a long-standing grievance against the Yorkist Lords, who were questioning the legitimacy of his Wife's inheritance. Slain ex parte Regis, having raised 10,000 men from his estates in Cheshire, Shropshire, Staffordshire, and Derbyshire, and commanded the Lancastrian force that moved to block the Yorkist Earl of Salisbury, and defeated in the Battle of Blore Heath on the 23rd September 1459, ({ZC3} Audley was killed by Sir Roger Kynaston of Stocks near Ellesmere (Kynaston incorporated emblems of the Audley Coat-of-Arms into his own and as well as the Coat of Arms, also took his, Ermine, a chevron gules, ever since borne quarterly by the Kynastons of Hordley". Sir Roger was summoned to the Court of Edward IV, King of England, some 18 months after his accession in 1461, and Knighted. He was presented with the arms and certain land of Lord Audley.)). A stone cross was erected in 1765, to replace the original, and marks the spot where he fell to this day. Buried at Darley Abbey, close to his Manor House of Monkeaton, Com Derby, (Comment: as the Abbey no longer stands, his final resting place is no longer marked.) (Reference P Rot Claus Temp Hen V et VI hall Hollingshed). Married 1st MARGARET de ROS, Daughter of William de Ros, 6th Lord de Ros (Turner) of Helmsley, and Margaret FitzAlan (D'Arundel), in March 1415, She Died in 1430. Married 2nd ELEANOR de HOLLAND, (by Marriage license obtained 14th September 1430,) natural Daughter of Edmund de Holland, 4th Earl of Kent by Lady Constance Plantagenet, Daughter of Edmund de Langley, 1st Duke of York. She was Born in 1405 and Died in 1452. It is said that both Marriages were allowed by Papal Dispensation but not consummated. (* Calendar of the Close Rolls) ({ZC3's} Coat of Arms are displayed in Canterbury Cathedral) The said {ZC3} JAMES LORD AUDLEY had summons to Parliament among the Barons, till the time of his Death; and had two Wives, Margaret, daughter of William Lord Ros, of Hamlake; by whom he had issue. {ZC4} John, his Son and heir, before mentioned. And by Eleanor, his 2nd Wife, natural daughter of Thomas Holland Earl of Kent, by Constance, daughter of Edmund de Langley, Duke of York, he had issue three sons;

- i.) {ZC4} JOHN TOUCHET first Son by 1st Wife (of whom more presently)
- ii.) {ZC13} SIR HUMPHREY TOUCHET, first Son by the 2nd Wife, took the name of Audley as did also his younger Brothers Born 1430 and killed at the Battle of Tewkesbury 4th May 1471. (His Knighthood - problematical.) He Married ELIZABETH LUTTRELL formerly COURTENAY, about 1461, and had issue. She was the Widow of Sir James Luttrell, of Dunster Castle, Somerset, and Daughter of Sir Philip Courtenay, of Powderham, Devon, and Sister of Peter Courtenay, Bishop of Winchester, and by her had issue: (Said to be ancestor of the Audley family of Norfolk, and {ZC15} Edmund Audley, Bishop of Rochester.) Sir Humphrey was taken prisoner at the Battle of Tewkesbury, and tried before Richard, Duke of Gloucester, and the Duke of Norfolk. Executed with other Lancastrian Leaders in the Market Square, and he was Buried under the pavement in the Chapel of St

Nicolas, in the Abbey Church of St Mary the Virgin. * A large part of the Luttrell estate was settled on her in jointure, some two years later. In the proceedings of 1475, Lady Luttrell is described as a Widow. She had, in point of fact, had two husbands. Sir James Luttrell had, as we have seen, been mortally wounded at the second Battle of St. Albans and attainted. After his death, she had married his Cousin, {ZC13} Sir Humphrey Touchet, and Brother of {ZC4} Lord Audley, but he in turn was taken prisoner at the Battle of Tewkesbury and Beheaded. Even in those distracted times of civil war, there could not have been many Widows who had, within eleven years, lost two husbands fighting on behalf of the unfortunate House of Lancaster. She eventually Married a 3rd husband, Thomas Mallet of Enmore in Somerset, about 1478, but, according to common medieval custom, she retained the surname of Luttrell until her Death in the Reign of Henry VII. It was under that name that she, in 1476, stood God Mother to Richard, the short-lived Son of her patron, George, Duke of Clarence. Her feelings at the Christening must have been mixed, for it was performed at Tewkesbury, the very place where her late Husband had lost his head. (Source: www.tudorplace.com.ar/COURTENAY2.htm) She Died 1st September 1493 in Dunster, Somerset.

- A) {ZC46} SIR JOHN AUDLEY of Swaffham Market, Norfolk. Created a Knight Bachelor, after the Battle of Blackheath, Cornwall, on the 17th June 1497. This marriage never took place and in 1534, she was still Margaret Marzen, a Widow. Richard Audley, Married KATHERINE SCROPE the Daughter and Co-heir of Richard Scrope of Bolton. By her who was unmarried in August 1498, and a Widow on the 25th September 1531 Richard had issue. (Moreover Elizabeth (nee Scrope) Beaumont de Vere (d.1537), Countess of Oxford, second Wife of the 13th Earl, was related to the Audley family. Her sister, Katherine Scrope, married Richard Audley, and the Countess left bequests to members of the Audley family in her Will (see TNA PROB 11/27, ff. 84-6). It thus seems possible that the testator {ZW5} Lord Thomas Audley, (1st & Last Baron Audley of Walden) KG. PC. KS. (1488 – 1544) was a descendant of the branch of the Audley family into which the Countess' Sister, Katherine, Married.) Barons Audley and Earl of Castlehaven Line (1616 to 1777)

In 1616 {ZC20} George Touchet 11th Lord Audley of Heleigh became the 1st Earl of Castlehaven. The title of Earl of Castlehaven was held until the Death of {ZC69} John Talbot Touchet in 1777, apart for a period of time from 1631 when the title was Forfeited, and then Restored again in 1678.

{ZC20} GEORGE TOUCHET, 1ST BARON AUDLEY OF ORIER, CO ARMAGH, IRELAND, and (11TH LORD AUDLEY OF HELEIGH), 1ST EARL OF CASTLEHAVEN. CO CORK. 1st Son Born in 1551. Succeeded his Father in 1563 when aged 12 years, and was summoned to Parliament from the 30th September 1566 and served until 5th April 1614. After selling their family lands in North Staffordshire they settled in the South of Ireland, and lived at one time in the Castle Ferns, in Co Wexford. In 1610 he acquired 2,000 acres - about 34 small town lands - around what was to become Omagh Town. Interestingly enough, he called his new estates "Heley". Other members of his family received smaller amounts of land. Ultimately, the Government took all this land from the Earl on the grounds that he was negligent, under-funded and had too many "native Irish" tenants.

He was also summoned by writ to the Irish House of Lords on the 11th March 1613/14. Fellow of Magdalen College, Oxford, in 1570, and was awarded an Oxford University Degree. (Knight, Banneret? 1586.)

Succeeded as 1st Baron Audley of Orier, Co Armagh, Ireland, and (11th Lord Audley of Heleigh) 1595. Created 1st Earl of Castlehaven in Ireland, on the 6th September (14 Jac I) 1616. He held the offices of Governor of Utrecht, Netherlands, and Governor of Kells, Co Meath, Ireland, in command of eight companies against the rebel Irish in 1599, during The Nine Years' War or Tyrone's Rebellion that took place in Ireland from 1593 to 1603. He fought in the Battle of Kinsale on the 24th December 1601, where he was sorely wounded; he Died on the 20th February 1617. Married 1st LUCY MERVYN Daughter and Heiress of Sir James Mervyn, Knight, and Amy Clark of Fonthill Gifford, Com Wilts, before the 28th August 1584, and had issue, and she Died before 1610. Married 2nd on the 29th April 1611, at St Mary-le-Strand, London, Middlesex, to ELIZABETH (ANN) NOEL, Daughter of Sir Andrew Noel, and Mabel Harrington, 2nd Viscount, Campden SP, and had issue. (Elizabeth Noel went on to marry in 1619 a Sir Piers Crosby.). {ZC20} He Died on the 20th February 1617, and she Died after 8th December 1644, and had issue.

Convicted of Abetting one of his servants of the Rape of his own Wife, and other atrocious crimes, by the Commissioner of Oyer and Terminer, thereupon arraigned, had sentence of Death passed upon him, and was Beheaded on the 14th May 1631, at Tower Hill, The City, London. Married 1st ELIZABETH BARNHAM in 1619, Daughter and Co-Heiress, of Benedict Bamham, Alderman of London, also Sheriff of London 1591-2, and his Wife, Dorothea Daughter of Ambrose Smith, citizen and Mercer of London. Married 2nd LADY ANNE STANLEY BRYDGES on the 22nd July 1624, at Harefield, Middlesex, Daughter and Co -Heir of Ferdinando Stanley, 5th Earl of Derby, and Widow of Grey Brydges, 5th Baron Chandos of Sudeley, (Had issue). She was Born in May 1580, and Died at Ruislip, Middlesex, and was Buried on the 11th October 1647, at Harefield, Middlesex, and had issue.

(Comment: Upon the Attainder and execution of the second Earl for sodomy, under the Buggery Act 1533 in 1631, he forfeited his English peerage, but not his Irish titles; this was because his English barony of Audley had been created for heirs general, but his Irish earldom and barony was an entailed honour protected by statute De Donis. His Son, the third Earl, was created Baron Audley of Hely on 3 June 1633 by letters patent, with the precedence of his grandfather, in an attempt to restore to him the original Barony of Audley. However, this was deemed insufficient to do so a bill was passed in Parliament in 1678 which allowed him to inherit the original Barony despite the attainder. Ironically, within months he was barred from the House of Lords as a Roman Catholic under the Second Test Act. Source: www.wikivisually.com/wiki/Baron_Audley)

Death	Dead in 1392: PJA p265 23 rd June 1392 CP Edition 2 Vol 12 Part 2
Other	Existence: BG Vol 1 P353 Existence: CP Vol 1 P340 www.thepeerage.com confuses {ZT18} John Touchet with {ZC1} John Touchet and combines them into a single person rather than {ZT18} being the Father of {ZC1} http://tompaterson.co.uk/touchet/touchet.htm This website also confuses details of {ZT18} and {ZC1}.
Comment	He is not listed in CP Edition 2 Vol 1, as he never held the title of Baron Audley, but is referred to in the write up of {ZC2}.which states that {ZC2} was the Son and Heir of John Touchet who was the Son and Heir of {ZT18} Sir John Touchet by Joan, Sister of the 'whole blood' of {ZA16} Nicholas 3 rd Lord Audley. He is however listed in in CP Edition 2 Vol 12 Part 2 which deals with The Touchet's prior to taking the title ' Lord Audley' BE Vol 1 Page 750 states: 'But of this Nicholas have seen no more, than he departed this Life without issue upon St Mary-Magdalene's day 15 Rich 2 (1391 – 92) leaving John Tuchet and Margaret the Wife of Sir Roger Hillarie Knight his next Heirs. Which John Tuchet was Son of John, Son of Joane, his eldest Sister, and then Twenty years of age: and the said Margaret, the other Sister Forty years of age. By reason whereof the posterity of the said John and Joane, had the title of Lord Audley Ormerod Edition 2 Vol 1 Page 662 (The History of Cheshire) states John Tochet, Chavalier (Baron of Audley 4 Hen 4 (1402-03), made agreement with Thomas Touchet of Whitley, respecting the manor of Buglawton. 1 Hen 4 (1399-1400) Died on December 19 9 Hen 4 (1407 - 08) Inquest post mortem the following year; was ancestor of the Touchets, Lords Audley. Ormerod is clearly inconsistent with the Complete Peerage as the Complete Peerage has {ZC1} dying in 1392 whereas Ormerod has {ZC1} dying in 1407,. BE combines, believe Ormerod combines {ZC1} and {ZC2} into a single person.

Parentage	See Appendix "C" {ZC1} PJA p 265
Birth	23 rd April 1371: CP Vol 1 p340
Marriage	Isabel (with no surname) : CP Vol 1 p341 & BG Vol 1 p353 Elizabeth Stafford: source Douglas Richardson's 'Royal Ancestry' Information from National Trust at Dunster Castle states 'Margaret's parents were Lord Audley (John Touchett) 4th Baron of Nether Stowey Castle and Isobell Stafford (Elizabeth was a hitherto unidentified daughter of Humphrey Stafford and Alice Grenville.) She died on 19th February 1447. Her heir was her son James ' Unfortunately they did not specify why they refer to her as both Isabel and Elizabeth or explain the phrase 'hitherto unidentified daughter'

Birth	1423: Source Unknown
Marriage	Ann Itchingham: BG Vol 1 p353 Before 1456 Ann Echinham the Widow of John Rogers, who Died in August 1450: CP Vol 1 p342 It is suggested an Illegitimate Daughter of King Edward IV is said to have been the first Wife of John Tuchet 6th Baron Audley: Wikipedia 'King Edward IV of England'. The image of the Coat of Arms of {ZC4} on the 'Images of Coat of Arms' page suggests that the Illegitimate Daughter of King Edward IV was Isabella Mylberry.
Children of first marriage of Ann Itchingham	Ann Itchingham/Echinham's 1st Husband was John Rogers (also seen him referred to as John Fitzroger) and she had two children by him namely Henry Rogers and Thomas Rogers. We have seen it reported that both of them took the name Audley. These two sons of Ann (and their offspring) are not included in this Audley Family ZC file. It has been suggested that the above Henry Rogers (Audley) married someone called Hester and had 3 children Richard Audley (1488 - 1511), Thomas Audley (1491 – 1562) and Henry Audley (???? - ????)
	CP states that the will of Ann Etchingham was proved on the 24th June 1498 by Henry Rogers Son and Executor. We would interpret that The surname of Henry Rogers as being Rogers and therefore was Ann's son from 1 st Marriage

Parentage	ODNB says he was the second Son and Heir of {ZC4}. And that his elder Brother was Edward who Died in 1478 (i.e before the Death of {ZC4}) ODNB for {ZC4} also says that John, his younger Brother married an illegitimate Daughter of Edward IV. CP describes him as Son and Heir but NOT only Son and Heir so he could have had the two Brothers in the ODNB . BG does not suggest that he had any Brothers P for C suggests that {ZC5} had three Brothers John, George and Thomas as well as Sisters

From Wikipedia
Wikipedia http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Thomas_Dutton for Thomas Dutton states that he married Anne Touchet the Daughter of James Touchet 5th Baron Audley. Wikipedia does not have a page for Anne Touchet but does have a page for {ZC3} James Touchet 5th Baron Audley http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/James_Touchet,_5th_Baron_Audley This page indicates that {ZC3} James Touchet had 10 children; 3 by his 1 st Wife and 7 by his 2 nd Wife. It also indicated that {ZC3} James Touchet had two children called Ann one by his 1 st Wife and the other by his 2 nd Wife. Wikipedia states that the Daughter (Anne) by the 1 st Wife married Thomas Dutton and the Daughter (Anne) by the 2 nd Wife married Richard Delabere; and does not mention Hugh Done. (Comment: Do not understand why if you have two Wives you would give two children the same name even if one is about 22 years older than the other).
From thepeerage.com'
The Peerage Website' http://www.thepeerage.com/p10737.htm#i107367 states that {ZC3} James Touchet had 7 children (3 less than Wikipedia) Only one of these was called Anne. This website states that the Daughter called Anne married a Sir Thomas Sutton (not Dutton) and the Daughter whose name is not known married Hugh Done. This website does not mention Richard Delabere!!

1939 Registers

The 1939 Registers were created in 1939 for the issue of registration documents and ration books shortly after the commencement of World War 2. As they were produced after the start of the war they do not include people who were member of; conscripted into and volunteered for the Armed Services. Additionally After World War 2 these registers were used as the registration of people into the newly formed National Health Service. These registers were 'updated' by the National Health Service until 1991 when the National Health Service Registration was computerised. The updates made under the National Health Service typically include; changes of surname by Marriage, corrections to Christian names (For example changing initials to full names) and recording the Deaths of individuals listed in the registers. No changes of address are recorded are the Births of new individuals are not recorded.

The records of individuals are either open or closed. Open records can be viewed by the public and Closed records cannot be viewed by the public. Records are open if one of the following conditions applies:

- The record is open if the person was born more than 100 years ago. This is the 100 year rule and means that progressively more records will be opened each year until they all become open in 2040.

This document has been produced for display on www.audleyfamilyhistory.com. & www.audley.one-name.net Please feel free to distribute this document to others but please give credit to the website. This document should not be used for commercial gain

This document has been produced for display on www.audleyfamilyhistory.com. & www.audley.one-name.net Please feel free to distribute this document to others but please give credit to the website. This document should not be used for commercial gain

- The record is open if the person is deceased and the person's Death is recorded in the registers. In theory this means that the record for anyone listed in the registers and Died before 1991 should be open. However not all deaths before 1991 were recorded in the registers, and people who were in the Armed Forces in 1939 are not listed in the registers.

Records that are not open are closed. However members of the public can make requests to the National Archive at Kew to open closed records. To do this they must be able to supply a copy of a Death Certificate and the National Archives must be able to relate this Death Certificate to a particular individual in the 1939 Registers. For example the Death Certificate has the address where the individual died and the 1939 Registers have the address where the individual was living in 1939 so not all requests may be successful

Appendix "A" Who married 'George Twynyho'?

This appendix is attempting to resolve who married George Twynyho (or Twynyho)

Various documents give different names for the Wife and Father in Law of George Twynyho as follows:

Option 1- His Wife was {ZC81} Elizabeth Audley and her Father was {ZC5} Baron James Touchet 7th Baron Audley (who was beheaded following his capture at the Battle of Blackheath in 1497)

Option 2 – His Wife was Elizabeth Audley and her Father was {ZC115} Thomas Audeley the Brother of {ZC5} Baron James Touchet 7th Baron Audley (who was beheaded following his capture at the Battle of Blackheath)

Option 3 – His Wife was {ZC65} Ann Audley and her Father was {ZC14} Thomas Audley the Son of {ZC3} James Touchet of 5th Baron Audley (who was slain at the Battle of Blore Heath in 1459)

(Comment: It should be noted that in the above three options the first two Options relate back to the 7th Baron Audley (who was beheaded after capture at the Battle of Black Heath, London, in 1497.) whereas the third option relates back to the 5th Baron Audley (who was killed at the Battle of Blore Heath, Staffordshire, in 1459.) It should also be noted that both the 5th and the 7th Baron Audley were both called James Touchet, and this may account for the confusion.)

Option 1 The source for Option 1 is the Family Tree produced for the {ZC20} George Touchet, 1st Earl of Castlehaven, and 11th Baron Audley. This family tree was published and published in the 'Genealogist' (New Series) XXXVI (pages 9 to 21).

Option 2 The source of this information is from 'The visitation of the County of Somerset in the years 1531 and 1573, together with additional pedigrees, chiefly from the Visitation of 1591' https://archive.org/details/visitationscoun00benoog page 132. This visitation shows the following two items:

1. George Twynyhoe (3rd Son of John Twynyho) marrying 'Elizabeth' the Daughter of Thomas Audley the Brother to James Lord Audley and;
2. Roger (1st Son of John Twynyho) who was slain at Blackheath. {ZC5} James Touchet the 7th Lord Audley who was captured at the Battle of Blackheath and was subsequently beheaded on the 28th June 1497, at Tower Hill, in London,

The inference from the above, because of the reference to the Battle of Blore Heath is that the James Lord Audley in item 1 is the 7th Baron Audley. However it could be a reference to an earlier Baron James Audley.

Option 3 The source of this information is page 171 of Chapter XI of Audley Pedigrees by A. L Reade which contains the Will (page 158) of George Twynyho that was dated 2nd March 1524/5 and Administration granted on the 7th April 1525. In George Twynyho's will are the following statement 'To my Wife Anne, 100 Marks, and silver salts, and so forth, and two standing cups of silver with the arms of her Father, Master Thomas Audeley on one of them.

Also Audley Pedigrees (page 160) contains the Inquest Post Mortem of Thomas Audeley (sic) Esq, the Father of Anne Audley. In this inquest taken in 1507 are the following statements:

1.', with the remainder to George Twynneho (sic) of Cayford, co Somerset, Gent, and Anne his Wife, Daughter and Heiress of said Thomas, and the Heirs of their bodies.
2. Thomas Audeley (sic) on Tuesday next after Corpus Christi last past (June 1507) and Anne, Wife of George Tynneho (sic), is his Daughter and next Heir and is aged 17 years and more.

This document has been produced for display on www.audleyfamilyhistory.com. & www.audley.one-name.net Please feel free to distribute this document to others but please give credit to the website. This document should not be used for commercial gain

Conclusions.

As Option 3 is the only option that agrees with both the Will of George Twynyho and the Inquisition Post Mortem of Thomas Audeley (sic) is believed that Option 3 must be correct.

This conclusion will have created doubt as to the existence of {ZC81} Elizabeth Audley & {ZC115} Thomas Audley.

Appendix "B" Reference to {ZC6} John Touchet Baron Audley being a twin

References to {ZC6} being a twin are made in:- <http://genforum.genealogy.com/audley/messages/32.html>
(Comment; the following information has been taken from the above website.)

(*Source:- <http://genforum.genealogy.com/audley/messages/32.html>)

*{ZC6} i. John Touchet, Baron Audley was born Cal 1483; died Bef 20 Jan 1557-1558.

*{ZC11} ii. James Touchet, Baron Audley was born Abt 1485; died Yes, date unknown.

*{ZC??} iii. William Audley (Twin of John)-b. 1475. Ancestor of North American Audley's.

William Audley 1 was Born circa 1475 in Hitchin, Hertford, England and Died on the 4th July 1541 in Hitchin, Hertford, England. His spouse name was Agnes, maiden name unknown. She was Born in 1480 in Hitchin, Hertford, England. They were married in 1497 in Hitchin, Hertford, England and they had children, one being,

1. William Audley II b.1503 Hitchin, Hertford, England.

2. William Audley III (1522 -) Son of William II?

3. Agnes Audley (1544 -) Daughter of William III?
(James Williams (1576 - 1620) Son of Agnes)

(Our ancestor was William whose descendants Emigrated to North America!)

Comments on the above.

1. With regard to person No 3 above, Agnes Audley, whose Son was James Williams she is included in Chapter 19 page 252 of Audley Pedigrees by A L Reade and her Father, Grandfather, and Great Grandfather were all called William. The title of Audley Pedigrees Chapter 19 is Audley of Hitchin. There is nothing within Chapter 19 of Audley Pedigrees proposing a link to the Barons Audley.
2. None of the 'Standard' publications:
(e.g The Complete Peerage, Burke's Peerage, Baronagium Genealogicum, The Pedigree produced in 1597 for {ZC20} George Touchet, Lord Audley the 1st Earl of Castlehaven) makes any reference to {ZC6} having a Brother called William, let alone a twin.

The information in the website above does not state the source of its information other than 'other websites'

Conclusion

This item is still to be resolved.

Appendix “C” Confusion regarding : {ZT14} Sir Thomas Touchet; {ZT18} Sir John Touchet; {ZC1} John Touchet; & {ZC2} John Touchet.

From our research we know that:

{ZT14} Sir Thomas Touchet was the Father of:

{ZT18} Sir John Touchet married {ZA14} Joan Aldithley and was the Father of:

{ZC1} John Touchet who was the Father of :

{ZC2} Sir John Touchet who was the 4th Baron (Lord Audley) and the first with the Touchet surname.

In the various published information researched there appears to be some confusion between the four individual as shown in the tables below:

{ZT14} Sir Thomas Touchet
Baronage of England by Sir William Dugdale	Indicates that {ZA14} married Johanna, one of the Daughters and Co-Heir to {ZA16} Nicholas 3 rd Lord Audley of Heleigh.
Ormerod	Indicates that he married a Joan - Includes dates: 8 Edw 3; (25 Jan 1334 to 24 Jan 1335) 14 Edw 3; (25 Jan 1340 to 24 Jan 1341) 15 Edw 3.(25 Jan 1341 to 24 Jan 1342)
Baronagium Genealogicum	States he Died in 1349, Does not say who he Married
Pedigree done for 1 st Earl of Castlehaven {ZC20}	States he Died on the 18th August (23 Edw 3) (1349) Does not say who he Married
Collins 1812 Edition Vol 6	Died (23 Edw 3) (25 Jan 1349 to 24 Jan 1350) Does not say who he Married
Complete Peerage Vol 1 “Audley Line”	Not included as not part of Audley line
Complete Peerage Vol 12 part 2 “Touchet Line”	Says he Married Joan He died on the 18th August 1349
thepeerage.com	Not included

Observations on {ZT14}

- All the dates are consistent
- The Baronage of England by Sir William Dugdale is incorrect in stating that he married {ZA14}

{ZT18} Sir John Touchet
Baronage of England by Sir William Dugdale	Is not mentioned
Ormerod	States that he married {ZA14} Johanna the Sister and Co-heiress of {ZA16} Nicholas 3rd Lord Audley of Heleigh.
Baronagium Genealogicum	States that he married Jane the Co-heir to her Brother, Nicholas Baron Audley.
Pedigree done for 1 st Earl of Castlehaven {ZC20}	States he was 22 years old in (23 Edw 3) (25 Jan 1349 to 24 Jan 1350) States that he married {ZA14} Johanna the Sister and Co-heiress of Nicholas Lord Audley
Collins 1812 Edition Vol 6	States he was 22 years old in (23 Edw 3) (25 Jan 1349 to 24 Jan 1350) States he was slain at Rochel, France. 22 nd June (44 Edw 3) (25 Jan 1370 to 24 Jan 1371)
Complete Peerage Vol 1 "Audley Line"	Mentioned within the section on {ZC2} Indicates that he Died at La Rochelle, France in 1371
Complete Peerage Vol 12 part 2 "Touchet Line"	Born 25 th July 1327 Married Joan Aldithley. He Died shortly before the 10th January 1361/2
thepeerage.com	States he Married Joan Audley Died 1371 at La Rochelle.

Observations on {ZT18}

- The biggest inconsistency is whether he {ZT18} or his Son {ZC1} Died at La Rochelle, France. (also see comments under {ZC1} below)
- Wikipedia (and other on-line resources) state that the Battle of La Rochelle was fought on 22nd and 23rd June 1372 and not 1371 as stated in some of the above references.
- <http://www.luminarium.org/encyclopedia/larochelle1372.htm> also states that the Battle of La Rochelle was fought on 22nd and 23rd June 1372 and that Sir John Touchet was killed.
- Have concluded that {ZC1} Died in La Rochelle as Complete Peerage Vol 12 part 2 is the only document to suggest a date of Death for both {ZT18} and {ZC1}

Observations on {ZC1}

- Wikipedia (and other on-line resources) state that the Battle of La Rochelle was fought on 22nd and 23rd June 1372 and not 1371 as stated in some of the above references.
- <http://www.luminarium.org/encyclopedia/larochelle1372.htm> also states that the Battle of La Rochelle was fought on 22nd and 23rd June 1372 and that Sir John Touchet was killed.
- The complete peerage Vol 12 part 2 has the correct date for the Battle of La Rochelle.
- Believe he Died at La Rochelle and not {ZT18} as ' Complete Peerage Vol 12 part 2 is the only document that gives a date for the Death of both {ZT18} and {ZC2}

Appendix "D" Who Married John Dabridgecourt?

Whilst the title of this Appendix refers to John Dabridgecourt, documents spell his surname in different ways, for example D'Abridgecourt and Dabrichcourt.

Conflicting Information.

- The pedigree completed for {ZC20} George the 1st Earl of Castlehaven states that {ZT15} Sir Robert Tuchet married Matilda the daughter of Richard de Bromehal (sic) and gives a date of (21 Edw 3) (1347-1348) It states that Matilda's 2nd Husband was JOHN DABRIDGECOURT. Unfortunately does not give source of information
- Ormerod has {ZT15} Robert Tuchet with dates of (8 Edw 3) (1334-1335) and a possible Death in (15 Edw 3) (1341 - 1342) as marrying Matilda, Daughter of Richard de Bromhall. Matilda married second SIR JOHN D'ABRIDGECOURT (sic). Unfortunately does not give source of information
- Complete Peerage Vol 12 part 2 has {ZC1} John Touchet. Marrying Maud and dying on the 23rd June 1372, and that Maud married JOHN DABRIDGECOURT before the 31 August 1381. (Source HCS new series Vol X pages 99-100)
- The History of Parliament on line website for SIR JOHN DABRICHECOURT (sic) (Died 1415), of Markeaton, Derbyshire. <http://www.historyofparliamentonline.org/volume/1386-1421/member/dabrichcourt-sir-john-1415> has : '?Son (sic) of Sir Sir Sanchet Dabrichcourt (sic) (Died circa 1360) KG Brother of Sir Nicholas. Married by September 1378, Maud, Widow of Sir John Tuchet (Died 1371), of Markeaton, 1 Son, 5 Daughters, 2 Sons, Illegitimate, Knighted by October 1375; KG source given as; 20 March 1413. (Source JUST 1/1488, rot. 9; Top. et Gen. ed. Nichols, i. 197; Reg. Chichele, ii. 51-54, 108-10; G.F. Beltz, Mems. Order of the Garter, pp. lv, clvii; CPR, 1374-7, p. 180.)

So the two problems to be resolved are

- Was the name of the person who married Sir John Dabridgecourt Maud or Matilda
- Was the person who married Sir John Dabridgecourt the Widow of {ZT15} Sir Robert Touchet or {ZC1} John Touchet.

Conclusions

Based on the information in the 'Discussion Section' below it is concluded that:

- John Dabridgecourt married the Widow of {ZC1} John Touchet and not {ZT15} Sir Robert Touchet
- The Wife of {ZC1} is Maud and the Wife of {ZT 15} is Matilda. The fact that Maud is a vernacular (commonly spoken) version of Mathilda could account for why John Darabridgecourt is in some documents incorrectly attributed to have Married the Widow of {ZT15} instead of {ZT35}. This conclusion does not conclude whether the 'De Broomhill should be attributed to the Wife of {ZA15} or {ZT35}.

Discussions

- The Oxford Dictionary of Forenames states that Maud is a Medieval vernacular of Matilda. Therefore the same person could be called Mathilda or Maud in the same way that a person could be called Alex or Alexander.

[Aug 31st.] The Official of the Archdeacon of Derby acknowledges a mandate from the Bishop, dated Heywode, iij Kal. Sept 1381, (presumably 3rd Day of September 1381) ordering him to make an inquisition concerning the presentation of Thomas Touchet to the Church of Makworth (sic) [Mackworth] by John Dabrichourt (sic) and Wife of {ZC1} Matilda his Wife and commissioned him to act accordingly. The Official reports that on Saturday the last day of August, in the Church of St Michael, Derby, in full chapter of the place, by the Rectors and Vicars present in chapter viz dss (sic) [namely ???] Thomas, Henry and Hugh, Rectors of Braylesford (sic) [Brailsford], Longeley (sic) and Keteleston, (sic) [Kedleston] dss John, John, and John Vicars of Spondon (sic), St Werburga (sic) [Werburch] and St Michael, Derby he made inquisition upon all the articles contained in the Bishop's mandate. The inquisition said that the vacancy began on Tuesday after St Bartholomew by the Death of ds John; that the presenters were the true patrons, and {ZT14} Sir John Tuchet father of {ZC1} Sir John Tuchet, the husband of the said Wife of {ZC1} Matilda, last presented the aforesaid ds (sic) [????] John, (presumably it was this John who had Died) who was instituted and inducted; that the presentee was of good life and honest conversation, in Priests' orders and not elsewhere beneficed. The Official accordingly, on the said Saturday, admitted Thomas Touchet, instituted him, and made him to be inducted. Dated Derby vj Kal. Oct. (sic) [6th day of October]

Comments on the above

(Interpretation of the above is that Sir John Touchet and his Wife Matilda, presented a John Touchet to be Vicar of Mackworth and when that the John (the Vicar) had died Matilda and her 2nd Husband John Dabridgecourt presented Thomas Touchet to be the next vicar of Mackworth.

The date of the Episcopal Registers from Lichfield is 1381; this is some 40 years after the latest date in Ormerod referring to Matilda and John Dabridgecourt.)

The King, therefore, willing to do what was just, commanded the Sheriff to summon the said William de Roos to appear in Chancery at a month from Easter, to show cause why the said Letters Patent should not be revoked, dated 16 February (11 H IV), on which day William de Roos did not appear, and John Tuchet, the Son of Richard, having appeared by Attorney, and stated the facts as given above, prayed for restitution of the Manor and advowson of Makeworth (sic) [Mackworth]. And John Tykkyll, who appeared for the King, stated that {ZC2} John Tuchet Knight had died seised of the Manor and appealed to a jury which was to be summoned for the Quindene at Trinity. Comments on the above

- The key phrase in the above is ' John Tuchet, Knight under the name of John Tuchet, Lord of Audeley. This can only be {ZC1} and allows other Tag Reference numbers to be attributed accordingly
- The above document only refers to Matilda and yet it is used in Complete Peerage Vol 12 part 2 page 59 footnotes (j) to justify Maud as being the Wife of {ZC1}.

Topographer and Genealogist. Vol 1 edited by John Gough Nichols, FSA published 1864

The above document has commencing page 197 a family tree of the Dabridgecourt family. Within that family tree it has:

The note below states: The Wife of Sir John is stated in some of the pedigrees to be Maud, Daughter of Sir Richard Bromhall, and relict of Rob Touchet of Bughawton (sic) and Nether Whitley co Cest; in others Matilda, Dau of Will Willoughby; ob May 1, 1445, Buried at Wollaston, co Notts.

Comments on the above

- (The above explains the confusion between Maud and Matilda. But does not explain the reasoning for the different suggestions between {ZT15} and {ZC1} as to who married the Matilda, whose second Marriage was to John Dabridgecourt.)

Appendix “E” Discussion regarding various people in (or not included in) this Family History

This appendix aims to discuss the above different interpretations and comments made from other sources with the aim of deciding the correct interpretation to be included in this document.

{ZC3} Baron James Touchet - 5th Lord Audley of Heleigh.

The following websites: http://www.chittick.com/history/erminda/barons_audley.html and <http://tompaterperson.co.uk/touchet/touchet.htm>

Suggest that the name of {ZC3} is Baskerville James Touchet. The second of these websites does not give any reference to its source of information and therefore the information it contains cannot be confirmed. The first website gives a reference to someone marrying Baskerville John Touchet quoting as reference ' Collins Peerage of England 5th edition volume 6 pages 301 to 309' Having looked at this document no reference can be found to somebody called ' Baskerville James Touchet. There is however a reference of an un-named Daughter of a Touchet marrying someone with the surname Baskerville.

As all other 'standard' documents on the Peerage refer to {ZC3} as James Touchet and no primary documentary source can be found that refers to the name Baskerville {ZC3} is referred to within this document as {ZC3} Baron James Touchet and not as {ZC3} Baron Baskerville James Touchet.

John “the Blind” Audelay

John Audelay (or Awdelay; Died ca. 1426) was a Priest and poet from Haughmond Abbey (near Shrewsbury) in Shropshire; he is one of the few English poets of the period whose name is known to us. Some of the first Christmas Carols recorded in English appear among his works.

The little that is known to us about Audelay's life comes mainly from the manuscript MS. Douce 302 (now in the Bodleian Library). The manuscript contains the text of all sixty-two of his surviving poems. The dialect of Middle English used in the above manuscript is local to Staffordshire, and it has been suggested that Audelay may therefore have come from the Staffordshire village of Audley. However, the earliest biographical record of Audelay places him in London in 1417, when he was part of the household of Lord Richard Lestrage, 7th Baron Strange of Knockin, (Knockyn).

John Audelay was a noted 15th-Century writer who resided at Haughmond. Audelay, a blind and deaf poet, was not an Augustinian Canon but the first secular priest to serve in the Lestrage chantry. His accession date, 1426, is noted in a colophon of a manuscript of his work [80] and he signs off several poems with a self-description: “My name is Jon the blynd Awdlay.” It is known that Audelay had some involvement in disturbances at the Church of St Dunstan-in-the-East in London at Easter 1417, in which his employer, Richard le Strange, 7th Baron Strange (1381–1449), and his entourage assaulted Sir John Trussell, on the second occasion killing a by-stander. Formerly regarded as little more than samples of the contemporary Shropshire Middle English dialect, Audelay's poems give considerable insight into the spiritual concerns of the age. Most reflect on the value of points of Christian doctrine or liturgy.

All the above information has been taken from Wikipedia: John Audelay & Haugmond Abbey.

No information has been identified to link “Jon the Blynd Awdlay”to this or any branch of the Audley family. The information above links this John Awdelay with Richard le Strange 7th Baron Strange (1381 – 1449) The only link between the Audley Family and the Strange Family is that the second wife of {ZA13} Sir James Aldithley, 2nd Lord Audley of Heighley (1313 -1386) was Isabel Le Strange, The Daughter of Roger Le Strange 5th Lord Strange (of Knockyn) (1327- 1382) The above dates show that “Jon the Blynd Audlay who died in 1426 is unlikely to have known {ZA13} who died some 40 years earlier. This item has been included in the {ZC} file as John ‘The Blind Audelay was living at the time the Touchets held the title of Baron Audley.

Cecily More was the Daughter of John More of Crabbet Worth, Sussex and Canon Row, Westminster (d. January 19th, 1580/81) and Agnes Moulton (1530-February 28th, 1557). By 1572, she had Married Henry Audley of Knighton, Dorset and Fawley, Hampshire (d. November 12th, 1606), by whom she had two daughters. In 1605, he settled most of his lands in Dorset on her and in his Will, dated on November 6th, 1616, left her his Hampshire property, including Fawley, as well. She was named sole Executor. Her surviving Daughter contested the Will but on November 13th, 1607 the judgment went in Cecily's favor. *(Source: kateemersonhistorical.com) *CECILY MORE (d.1607+)

Eleanor's second husband was John Audley of Hodnill, Warwickshire (1478-August 19th 1538). WILLIAM TUCHET, Having summons to parliament among the Barons, from 1295 to 1307, was in that expedition made into Gascoigne, France, and the year following in that into Scotland. In 29th year of Edward I. he was one of the Barons who subscribed (being wrote William Touchet Lord of Leevenhales) a letter to Pope Boniface in answer to his claiming the sovereignty of Scotland, wherein they asserted that the King ought not to send any proctors, &c., to His Holiness, in any matter touching his temporalities, &c. They tell the Pope they will maintain with all power, and by God's help, the liberties, customs, &c., of their Forefathers. To him succeeded another WILLIAM TOUCHET, who in the 1311 received command to serve in Scotland, as likewise in 8th of same reign, also in 1319 of Edward II. was again in the Wars of Scotland; but three years after, on the insurrection of Thomas, Earl of Lancaster, and his defeat at Burrough Brigg, being there taken with him, he suffered death at Pomfret.

After Anthony de Bek's death in 1310 Hardwick evidently passed to the Audley's of Aston Clinton, Buckinghamshire. The 'Alice of Hoke' who held the manor in 1316 (fn. 36) may be identified as Alice de Audley, whose possessions at her death in 1342 included the manor of 'Oke' in Aston Clinton. (fn. 37) This Alice was the widow of a James who may have been an illegitimate son of {ZA6}? James de Audley (d. 1272). (fn. 38) She was succeeded at Hardwick and Aston by her son William de Audley, (fn. 39) who at his death in 1365 held Hardwick jointly with his wife Joan. (fn. 40) The manor was taken into the king's hands in error, but Joan recovered possession in 1366, (fn. 41) and held Hardwick until her death in 1382. In 1383 the manor was placed in the custody of Sir William de Drayton during the minority of Elizabeth, daughter of William de Audley's brother Thomas. (fn. 42) Elizabeth and her husband John Rose (d. 1410) held the Audley lands in Aston Clinton, (fn. 43) but the descent of Hardwick is unknown until 1428, when it appears in the possession of the Arden family. Elizabeth (de Audley) Rose. She seems to have predeceased her husband, (fn. 92) who held the manor for life, according to a settlement made in 1387, (fn. 93) and by agreement with Philip St. Clair, (fn. 94) who seems to have been the heir of Elizabeth Rose. His only relationship to Elizabeth was apparently through the mother of William de Audley, who was one of the sisters and co-heiresses of Edmund de Bereford. (Did this William have any connection to {ZA27}? Sir James de Aldithley K.G. (Founder Knight of the Garter.) (1322 – 1369)?
