Introduction

Introduction to the {Z} group of Audley Families.

This Branch of the Audley Family (The Barons Audley Family ZA) is one of a series of 4 Audley Family Trees. The relationship between these families is shown in the following diagram.

- The Audley Family ZW (This document) family tree contains the family to the Baron Audley of County Essex, England. This Barony was only in existence for one generation and limited to the period 1538 to 1544. Whilst the title was held by one person he was Lord Chancellor of England for the 11 years prior to his death and was elected a member of the Knights of the Garter. Despite only one person holding the title the Audley ZW document contains details of 49 individuals
- The Audley Family ZA family tree contains the Family History of those individuals with the Audley surname, including many variant spellings, that became Barons, Lord, Audley of Heleigh in County Staffordshire. Other members of this family became Barons of Stratton Audley; and Earl of Gloucester. One Member of this family Sir James Audley was the hero of the Battle of Poitiers (19th September 1356) and was a founder member of the Order of the Garter. The line of Audley's holding the title of Baron Audley of Heleigh ceased on the 23rd July 1391, with the Death of {ZA16} Nicholas de Aldithley. His Sister {ZA14} Joan de Aldithley (Audley), had married {ZT18} Sir John Touchet and their grandson {ZC2} Sir John Touchet became Baron Audley of Heleigh on 21st December 1405. The line of the Barons Audley of Stratton Audley only survived for a single generation and from 1321 to 1326. Similarly the line of an Audley being Earl of Gloucestershire only survived for a single Generation and from 1337 to 1347. This document contains the details of approximately 61 individuals
- The Audley Family ZT Family Tree contains the family tree of those people with the Touchet surname, including many variant spellings, prior to the Touchet family becoming Baron Lord Audley of Heleigh in 1405. The file stops with the Marriage of {ZT18} Sir John Touchet to {ZA14} Joan de Aldithley (Audley). The combined Touchet/ Audley family Tree is continued in The Barons Audley Family ZC. This document contains the details of approximately 40 individuals.
- The Barons Audley Family ZC Family Tree contains the family tree of those people holding the title Baron Lord Audley from 1405 to 1997, when the 25th Lord Audley of Heleigh Died and the title went into 'Abeyance' Within this Family Tree the surname of the person holding the title changes from Touchet to Thicknesse, to Jesson and finally Souter. The file commences with the Marriage of {ZT18} Sir John Touchet to {ZA14} Joan de Aldithley (Audley), and terminated with the Death of {ZC97} Richard Michael Thomas Souter in 1997. This document contains the details of approximately 120 individuals.
- Other Audley Families such as Audley Family T & Audley Family N may be related to the above families but as yet the relationship has not been identified..

Origin of this branch of the Audley Family Free

The earliest members of Audley Family ZA were probably born in the late 1100s. It seems probable that their overlords were the Verdon Family. Some publications indicate that the Audley Family originated in Normandy and came over with William the Conqueror in 1066. I would suggest that it is more likely that the Audley Family were originally Anglo -Saxon, as the name Audley originated from the village of Audley in Staffordshire, and the Audley Family supported the Norman Verdon Family in return for land and status. For more details see the webpages relevant to the Origin of the Audley Surname and the pages about the ‘Battle Abbey Rolls.

Unconnected Audley’s

Information about any person that may be connected to any of the Audley Family Z Group of family trees is contained in Appendix ‘F’ of this The Barons Audley {ZC} document.

Key Dates for the Baron’s Audley

This section covers the group of Family Z files.

- Pre 1312/13 GEC in his The Complete Peerage refers to the ancestors of {ZA12} Nicholas de Aldithley as ‘may have been feudal Baron’s.
- 1312/1313 {ZA12} NICHOLAS DE ALDITHLEY becomes LORD AUDLEY (ref The Complete Peerage Vol 1 page 339) In the write up in this family tree file we also accredit him as being the 1st Lord Audley of Heleigh.
- 1321 {ZA23} HUGH DE ALDITHLEY became BARON AUDLEY OF STRATTON AUDLEY, CO OXFORDSHIRE.
- 1336/7 {ZA24} HUGH DE ALDITHLEY became EARL OF GLOUCESTER in 1337, through his Marriage to Margaret de Clare. The title appears to have become extinct upon his Death in 1347 (It should be noted that {ZA24} Hugh de Aldithley never held the title nor was he in line to hold the title LORD AUDLEY.) (This short line is discussed in The Complete Peerage Vol 1 page 346)
- 1391 {ZA16} NICHOLAS DE ALDITHLEY 3rd LORD AUDLEY OF HELEIGH, Dies without issue. Nicholas’ Sister {ZA14} Joan de Aldithley had Married Sir John Touchet. Their Grand Son {ZC2} SIR JOHN TOUCHET KNIGHT becomes the 4th LORD AUDLEY OF HELEIGH.
- 1405 {ZC2} SIR JOHN TOUCHET KNIGHT becomes the 4th LORD AUDLEY OF HELEIGH.
- 1538 {ZW5} THOMAS AUDLEY becomes first and last BARON AUDLEY OF WALDEN. There is no evidence to link the members of this branch of the Barons Audley to any other branch of the Barons Audley. In fact the Coat of Arms of Barons Audley of Walden is completely different from all other branches of the Barons Audley.
- 1544 {ZW5} THOMAS AUDLEY 1st BARON AUDLEY OF WALDEN dies and the barony becomes ‘extinct’
- 1616 {ZC20} GEORGE TOUCHET; 11th LORD AUDLEY OF HELEIGH in addition to the title Lord Audley became 1ST BARON AUDLEY OF ORIER in COUNTY ARMAGH, IRELAND and 1ST EARL OF CASTLEHAVEN in COUNTY CORK, IRELAND.
- 1633 {ZC22} JAMES TOUCHET 13th LORD AUDLEY OF HELEIGH, 3rd EARL OF CASTLEHAVEN & 3rd BARON AUDLEY OF ORIER became 1st BARON AUDLEY OF HELY. (See The Complete Peerage Vol 1 page 346, for the difference between the Barons Audley of Heleigh and Barons Audley of Hely.)
- 1777 The EARLDOM OF CASTLEHAVEN in County Cork, Ireland, & the BARONY OF ORIER in County Armagh, Ireland both becomes extinct upon the Death of {ZC69} JOHN TALBOT TOUCHET (18TH LORD AUDLEY OF HELEIGH), and 8TH BARON AUDLEY OF ORIER, CO ARMAGH, IRELAND, & 8th EARL OF CASTLEHAVEN, (The Viscounty ‘Carhampton of Castlehaven’ in County Cork, Ireland, was created in 1781 and became extinct in 1829, this Viscounty has nothing to do with the Audley Family)
- 1777 {ZC70} GEORGE THICKNESSE becomes the 19th LORD AUDLEY OF HELEIGH. He is the second son of {ZC28} ELIZABETH TOUCHET (the sister of {ZC69} BARON JOHN TALBOT TOUCHET) & her husband CAPTAIN PHILIP THICKNESSE Esq
- 1784 {ZC70} GEORGE THICKNESSE (LORD AUDLEY) changes his surname to THICKNESSE-TOUCHET.

- 1872 {ZC72} GEORGE EDWARD THICKNESSE-TOUCHET 21st LORD AUDLEY OF HELEIGH. Died in 1872, and according to “GEC” in The Complete Peerage of the Barony (i.e the title Lord Audley) fell into abeyance (ref The Complete Peerage Vol 1 page 346)
- 1937 {ZC73} MARY THICKNESSE-TOUCHET becomes 22nd ‘Baroness Audley’ of Heleigh, following the Death of {ZC74} her younger Sister, EMILY THICKNESSE – TOUCHET on the 17th May 1937.
- 1942 Following the Death of {ZC73} on the 27th May 1942 the title of 'Lord Audley' is inherited by the Jesson (Touchet- Jesson) family by, {ZC96} THOMAS PERCY HENRY TOUCHET – JESSON becoming the 23rd Baron Audley of Heleigh.
- 1973 Following the death of {ZC95} ROSINA LOIS VERONICA TUCHET – JESSON (sic), 24th Baroness Audley of Heleigh, on the 24th October 1973, the title of 'Lord Audley' is inherited by the Souter family.
- 1997 Following the death of {ZC97} RICHARD MICHAEL THOMAS SOUTER 25th Lord Audley of Heleigh, on the 27th June 1997, the title of 'LORD AUDLEY' went into ‘Abeyance’.

B) {ZW11} SIR HENRY AUDLEY I, Born in 1604, Knighted by King Charles 1, and who Married 1st to ANNE PAKINGTON about the 4th June 1628, and Daughter of Humphrey Pakington III of Harvington Hall, Kidderminster, Worcestershire, She was born in 1613, and who Died in 1642, and had issue. Sir Henry Married 2nd to ANNE DANIEL. Born on the 7th June 1629, and Daughter of John Daniel of Acton, Suffolk, in 1664, they were living in Barton, Suffolk, she was also alive in 1675, and had issue. In November 1665, Sir Henry and 2nd Wife Anne went to London, where Sir Henry became ill. He ignored a warning from his physician, a Dr Woolfe, and he Died on the 8th March 1666. (A. L. Reade comments, (Page 129 Chapter 9, Audley of Berechurch), that Anne, 2nd Wife and then Widow of Sir Henry, Married again after 12th October 1681, to a James Porter, who was Baptised 11th February 1637/8, and Vice Chamberlain to King James II, 5th Son of Endymion Porter, the famous Royalist.) Sir Henry is Buried in the Audley Chapel at Berechurch, where he is shown reclining in Caroline armour, with a Latin epitaph recording his descent and his family by Anne Pakington. Sir Henry left Berechurch to their only surviving Son, another {ZW14} Thomas Audley, and then to his Son by his 2nd Wife, Anne Daniel, another Henry {ZW16}, who Died without issue on the 1st September 1714. As well as property in Berechurch, he held other properties across Essex of, Manors of Chawrath (alias) Churchall, also Reeveshall, Lands at Windsomes Marsh, East Mersea, Layer de la Hay, Burch & Frayting, Barton, and Trumpingtons, also said to have ownership of the Manor of Ditton Co Salop, all of which he bequeathed in his Will to his family members.

Believed to have Married 1st to Henry (or Robert) Barker, of Monkwick, Essex, and Son of Bestney Barker, and had issue. He Died on the 10th October 1687. (Comment: The Chancery suit of Lutley v. Audley in 1700 (C.8/873/131, printed in A. L. Reade, Audley Pedigrees, pp. 110-111) shows that she Died in April 1699 and that her 1st Husband had Died before her.)
- 2) {ZW13} MARY AUDLEY, Born in 1630, and Baptised on the 6th August 1630, at Chaddesley, Worcestershire. She was a *Recusant during the Commonwealth, when her address was given as Ditton Priors (Thurloe State Papers, IV, p.). A Corby Deed of 1688 shows that she was then living in London. In 1715, when She Died, her address was Ramsden Heath in Essex, she registered the Manor of The Heath in Laysters, Herefordshire (Worth £82 6s 6d) and a moiety of Ditton Priors (Worth £473 3s 4d): (Comment: In the history of England and Wales, Recusancy was the state of those who refused to attend Anglican services; the individuals were known as Recusants) Living Unmarried on the 13th September 1715, the year when she Died..
3. {ZW14} THOMAS AUDLEY Born in 1631, and Baptised on the 3rd August 1631, at Chaddesley Corbett, Worcestershire. In 1641 the Manor of Berrington in Worcestershire was settled on him for life (C.142/711/51); Corby Deeds, on the 2nd June 1641. In March 1666, on the Death of his Father, {ZW10} Sir Robert Audley, he became entitled to £2,000 a year. But in 1664 he had been found to have been lunatic since 1st November the previous year, when he was living at Harvington Hall, Worcestershire (Source: 'The Yates', pp. 169-70 and n. 121). Latterly he lived in Buckland, Berkshire. Possibly he Died before the 24th February 1663/34. Thomas's inquisition post mortem, was taken at Kidderminster on the 24th February 1688. In his Will, however, he is described as of Buckland, Berks. Administration was granted on the 14th May 1688 to Sir Richard Allibon, Justice of the Common Pleas, for the use of {ZW17} Mary Audley and {ZW16} Katharine Barker, his Sisters, and of Henry Audley, their half-Brother.
4. {ZW17} ANNE (ABIGAIL) AUDLEY Not known when Born, she Died. Without issue before February 1687/8. But is known to have Married through correspondence in 1635 with her Grand Mother Abigail Pakington, Wife of Humphrey Pakington III. She Died without issue. (Source: Worcester R.O. 899:115/1 'The Yates', pp. 157-9)

- 5) {ZW16} SIR HENRY AUDLEY II Not known when Born. He entered Gray's Inn, being one of the four Inns of Court, in London, on the 1st February 1677/8, of Great Barton, Suffolk. He apparently had a relationship around 1682 with one Mary Hoskyns, Spinster of St Martin-in-the-Fields, who claimed to have had at least two children by him, and Co-habited with him for nine years under the name of "Digby". From Chancery Suit Records 1703-1710. He settled property on her in Essex. He is also said to have become acquainted with one "Grace Windress", of St Margaret's, Spinster, and another Mistress, and made her an Allowance. She later Married, to an Abraham Ward of London. He Married to ELIZABETH SMITH, Daughter of Phillip Smith, (Smythe), 4th Viscount Strangford in Ireland. They had no children and the Marriage seems to have been unhappy. According to Court Records in November 1708, Sir Henry had abandoned Elizabeth after 1703, leaving her destitute and she had to return to her Father's home. He got into debt, mortgaged Berechurch and as a prisoner; he Died in the Fleet Prison, London, on the 1st September 1714. She Died without issue on the 25th January 1732/3, and was Buried at Chart, Kent.
 - 6) {ZW15} FRANCIS AUDLEY Not known when Born, but is believed to have Died young, without issue, at Barton Magna, Suffolk, before the 12th October 1681, the date of his Will, in which he noted his Mother Lady Anne Audley as his administrator.

- ii) {ZW43} JOHN AUDLEY Not known when Born, but it would have been before 1544, as he is mentioned in {ZW5} Lord Thomas Audley’s Will, and he Died on the 21st July 1588, and Buried together with his Brother {ZW36} Thomas in the body of the Berechurch Church. Lord Audley’s bequest noted in his Will follows:- And I will that immediately after the decease of my said Brother my said Manor or Mese called Berechurch with the park and the advowson of Berechurch aforesaid, and all that my Mill called Layer Mill with the meadow and other the appurtenances thereunto belonging, and all other my said lands, tenements, rents, reversions, woods and hereditaments in Berechurch, West Donyland, East Donyland and Fingringhoe aforesaid, and all those lands, tenements and meadows with th’ appurtenances called Colles Land and Colles Meadow in Abberton aforesaid, and all that yearly rent of 20s going out of the said Manor of Hersted Hall shall be, come and remain to my said nephew, Thomas Audley, Son and heir apparent to my said Brother, and to the heirs and assigns of my said Nephew forever; And I will that immediately after the decease of my said brother all that the said site, circuit and precinct of the said late Hospital or Priory of the Cross Friars with all that the said mese called the Bell and all other the houses, buildings, gardens, pigsties and closes thereunto adjoining and belonging, and all that my said Manor or Mese called Gosebeckes with all the lands, meadows, pastures and woods thereunto belonging and all and singular their appurtenances, and all that my said wood called Crokelforde wood with the appurtenances shall be and remain to my Nephew, Thomas Audley, second Son of my said Brother, and to the heirs and assigns of the same my nephew, the second Son, forever; And I will also that immediately after the decease of my said brother all that my said mese, lands, tenements, rents, reversions and woods called Butlers in Abberton and Peldon aforesaid, and all that my mese, lands, tenements, rents, reversions, meadows, pastures and woods called Trumpingtons in Much Tey aforesaid with their appurtenances shall be, come and remain to my nephew, John Audley, youngest Son of my said brother and to the heirs and assigns of the same John forever; (*Source:- www.Oxford-Shakespeare.com/probate States in the Will of {ZW5} Lord Thomas Audley that his Father {ZW3} Geoffrey, had two Sons with the name Thomas?, this Elder Son of {ZW3} Geoffrey in turn had three Sons, Thomas, John & ????.)

- 4) {ZW5} THOMAS, LORD AUDLEY, (1st & Last BARON AUDLEY OF WALDEN KG, PC, KS.). Born in 1488, at Earls Colne, Essex, Son of Geoffrey Audley, a Yeoman, and Born in Colne, Essex. Who Married, 1st CHRISTINA (MARGARET?), Daughter of Sir Thomas Bernardiston, and Elizabeth Newport, of Ketton, Suffolk, about 1519, she Died on the 23rd January 1538, without issue. Married 2nd to ELIZABETH, Born in 1510, Daughter of Thomas Grey, 2nd Marquis of Dorset, and Margaret Wotton, on the 22nd April 1538, she then became known as Baroness Audley on 29th November 1538, and had issue of 2 Daughters, {ZW6} Hon Mary Audley, who Died unmarried (1539 - 1544), secondly {ZW1} Hon Margaret Audley, Born about 1540, who Married 1st Lord Henry Dudley, the first Son of Dudley, Duke of Northumberland, before 1557, and Married 2nd to Thomas Howard, 4th Duke of Norfolk, Son of Henry Howard, Earl of Surrey, about December 1558, and had issue by him of 3 Children, who was Beheaded at the Tower of London in 1572, in the reign of Queen Elizabeth, 1st Baroness Audley and Duchess of Norfolk. The Nobleman who built Audley End House and Gardens, in Essex, was a Son of this Duke of Norfolk. In 1516 he was appointed Town Clerk of Colchester; also he was a Freeman (Burgess). Audley End was a former Benedictine Monastery (Walden Abbey) granted to Thomas, Lord Chancellor in 1538 by Henry V111. He built up a substantial estate of many properties. The most valued property was Walden Abbey; the source of his Title. Thomas was made Lord Keeper of the Great Seal on the 20th May 1523, an office he held until 9 days before he Died on the 30th April 1544, at Cree Church, London, without Male issue. He was Buried at Chapel, Saffron Walden, Essex. Shortly after 1525, he was appointed Attorney General of the Duchy of Lancaster, and later also the Chancellor of the Duchy of Lancaster. Appointed as the Speaker of the House of Commons, in November 1529, and also represented Essex as Member of Parliament from 1529 – 1532. He was invested as a Knight on the 20th May 1532; also on the 26th January 1532 he was made Lord Chancellor of England in the room of Cardinal Wolsey. He tried the Lincolnshire Rebels and the Yorkshire Rebels and condemned them to death as traitors; following on from these trials on the 29th November 1538 he was created a peer by the name of Baron Audley of Walden, apparently for the express purpose that he might fill the office of Lord High Steward at the trial of the Marquis of Exeter. Through his various offices he appears to have been well connected with King Henry V111, in that it is said he sanctioned the divorce in 1533 from his 1st Wife, *Queen Catherine of Aragon, who was a prisoner in Kimbolton Castle, Huntingdon, from May 1534, and who Died there on the 7th January 1536, and also the Marriage to her Lady-in-Waiting *Anne Boleyn, she was Beheaded at the Tower of London with her lovers for Treason and Died on the 19th May 1536, (Comment: She was the 1st Queen of England to be publicly Beheaded), he also managed the dissolution of Henry VIII's Marriage to the German Princess *Anne of Cleves, which ended in annulment 6 months later in 1540. Also similarly with Catherine Howard's Marriage to Henry V111 in 1541. Invested as a Knight of the Garter in 1540. Amongst his other activities, he was involved with a college known as Buckingham College, before being refounded in 1542 as the College of St Mary Magdalene. Magdalene College has some of the grandest benefactors including Britain's premier noble the Duke of Norfolk, the Duke of Buckingham and the Lord Chief Justice Sir Christopher Wray.[5] However the refoundation was largely the work of Sir Thomas Audley, Lord Chancellor under Henry VIII. Audley also gave the College its motto — “garde ta foy” (Old French: "keep your faith"). Audley's successors in the Mastership and as benefactors of the College were, however, prone to dire ends; several benefactors were arraigned at various stages on charges of high treason and executed. He died on the 30th April 1544, peacefully at his home at Christchurch, Aldgate, London, when he was Buried in a Chapel he had erected at Saffron Walden, Essex.

(*Comment: Thomas Cromwell, 1st Earl of Essex (c. 1485 – 28th July 1540), was a Lawyer and Statesman who served as Chief Minister to King Henry VIII of England from 1532 to 1540, who is also said to have been involved in these events.)

(Comment:  A. L. Reade comments on page 127 of the Audley Pedigrees of Berechurch, that “Christina his Wife; that Lord Audley's Widow in 1549, became the Wife of Sir George Norton, Knt, Sheriff of Essex in 1550, and that from the Walden Court Rolls, they both appear to have been alive in 1558”. However, www.tudorplace.com states that it was Elizabeth Grey also Married in 1549 to Sir George Norton??)

- I) {ZW1} MARGARET AUDLEY, Born about 1540, who Married 1st to Lord Henry Dudley first Son of Dudley, Duke of Northumberland, before 1557, who was Born 1531 about, and Died at the Battle of St Quentin, France, on the 27th August 1557, without issue. She Married 2nd to Thomas Howard, 4th Duke of Norfolk, Son of Henry Howard, Earl of Surrey, about December 1558, and had issue by him of 4 children. She became the 1st Baroness Audley and Duchess of Norfolk. Margaret wanted to re-join her Husband for Christmas in 1563; she left Audley End when she was still weak from childbirth. She caught a chill on the journey and Died at Norwich on January 10th 1564, where she was Buried.. Her husband Thomas, was Beheaded at the Tower of London in 1572, in the reign of Queen Elizabeth.
- II) {ZW6} MARY AUDLEY, Born in 1539, She was Baptised on the 2nd October 1541, at All Saints Church, Terling, Essex. She Died unmarried after her Father

However in the 'Visitations of Essex' Pedigrees taken in 1612 & 1634 contained on Pages 120 & 121 of ALR Chapter 9 does show that {ZW5} had a Brother called Robert. ALR on page 121 has the following statement 'It will be noticed that the above pedigrees ('Visitations') give the Lord Chancellor's Brother, from whom the Berechurch Audley family descend, as ROBERT, whereas his name also was Thomas. However in the Visitations of Essex Pedigrees contained on Page 120&121 it shows that {ZW5} Lord Thomas Audley Baron of Walden had a Brother called Henry Audley and that he was the earliest member of the Audley Family of Great Grandson. A. L. Reade disagrees with this statement see Audley Pedigrees Chapter 9 page 121 and Audley Pedigrees Chapter 2 pages 29, 39-40 & 44-45. Whilst the Visitation Pedigrees were taken in 1612 & 1634; 68 years and 90 years after the death of {ZW5}, and were made by talking to the family alive at that time it is possible that verbal inaccuracies were recorded. Tag & Name	{ZW50} Thomas Audley According to ALR Chapter 9 the Brother of {ZW5} Lord Thomas Audley (Baron of Walden) was ALSO called Thomas Audley. However the 'Visitation of Essex Pedigrees as included o pages 120 and 121 of Chapter 9 of 'Audley Pedigrees' names the Brother of {ZW5} was called Robert Audley. It is clear from looking at the names of the Sons and their Wives that Thomas and Robert are the same person. Whilst the evidence that he was called Robert comes from the 'Visitation of Essex' Pedigrees of 1612 & 1634; the evidence that he was called Thomas comes from the Post Mortem Inquest following the Death of {ZW50} Thomas Audley contains the following statement ' Lord Audley made his Will, bequeathing to his Brother Thomas Audley the Manor of Berechurch and said Lands' In this document based on the fact that the inquisition was taken shortly after the Death of Thomas Audley, we have taken his name as Thomas, whereas the 'Visitation of Essex' which refer to him as Robert were taken 54 and 76 years after his Death However this documents also includes a {ZW4} as Robert Audley to direct readers looking for a Robert Audley to the explanation that Robert is really {ZW50} Thomas Audley
Parentage	{ZW3} Geoffrey Audley Both the Complete Peerage and Chapter 9 of Audley Pedigrees state that the Father of {ZW5} is Geoffrey Audley; Therefore as {ZW50} is the Brother of {ZW5} the Father of {ZW50} will also be Geoffrey Audley. However within the Complete Peerage Chapter 9 page 120 & 121 contain copies of 'Visitation of Essex' Pedigrees taken in 1612 & 1634; 68 years and 90 years after the Death of {ZW5}. These Pedigrees suggest that the Father of {ZW5} and {ZW50} was a Thomas Audley. In conclusion this document has followed the precedence set by 'The Complete Peerage and 'Audley Pedigrees'
