Introduction

In compiling the Family History of the Audley Surname it became clear that in the early 1800s the surname of Audley, Adley, Aidley, and Allday were interchangeable and also with other 'close' name variant spellings. Dependent on how the name was spelt when recorded, is important to bear in mind when researching a person, particularly within the County of Cheshire.

The reason for this divergence would appear to be that most of the holders of the surname could not read or write, as witnessed by the fact they frequently signed official records with an (X) in Marriage Certificates. It was therefore up to the Clergy to spell the surname as they thought appropriate. Inevitably the Aidley surname diverged from the Audley surname and became a surname in its own right.

This Index contains a list of all the Aidley references in the General Register of Birth, Marriage and Death Indexes from 1837 to 2005 inclusive.

You will see from the Indexes Tag Reference Numbers, most of these people with the Aidley surname have been included in the 'Audley Family "R" narrative, of Siddington, Cheshire.'
