

Various Local Matters.

Michael Corcoran, a Waterbury baker, has assigned with liabilities of $3,500 and assets of $500.

C. Roemer was gashed on the head and badly bruised Tuesday night by falling through a trap door in his store in Chapel street.

A runaway team ran over John Remper, eight years of age, at the corner of Church and George streets yesterday, breaking his right collar bone and bruising him badly.

Visitors from Meriden and Bridgeport were present at the meeting of Wooster lodge, F. and A. M., last evening, and witnessed the working of the second degree.

Norris B. Mix was surprised at his home in Hamden yesterday, by a visit from a delegation of the crusaders in the Veteran Odd Fellows association, and presented by them with a handsome lamp of unique pattern.

George T. Audley of this city and Miss Julia A. Remer of Whitneyville, were married at the bride's residence last evening, Rev. Austin Fushman performing the ceremony. The bride was the recipient of many handsome presents.
