

Runaway Horse.

Miss Nellie Audley of Aubabon street, a lady friend and a little boy, were all thrown out of a buggy on Columbus avenue yesterday, the horse being frightened by a train passing under Howard avenue bridge, as they were driving over. None were hurt except Miss Audley, who received a slight cut on her chin. The horse ran away, but was stopped by A. E. Thomas near the postoffice. The damages amounted to $15.