

NEWS ABOUT TOWN.

The Second Company Governor's Foot Guards had its fall field day yesterday.

The regular monthly meeting of the Young Men's Republican Club, will be held this evening.

On November 20 Rathbone Lodge will hold its 7th anniversary in the castle hall at 40 State Street.

Mrs. Walter Witter, nee Fordham, of Jersey City, is visiting her cousin, Miss May Williams of Elliott Street.

Rev. M. A. Munson of this City preached last Sunday at Stony Creek in place of Pastor Pelton, who was absent for rest.

G. A. W. Dodge, general manager of the New Haven Street Railway Co., is in Montreal attending the annual meeting of electric road managers.

The local councils of the Royal Arcanum will tender a reception to John E. Pound, supreme regent of the order, in Harmonie Hall, November 7.

W. L. Wightman, the engraver at 101 Orange Street, and Mrs. Wightman, left this morning for the Atlanta exposition. They will be gone till October 30.

The funeral of Mrs. Sarah Pierce, who died on Monday, took place this afternoon at 2 o'clock from her late residence, 163 Spring Street. Rev. Mr. Meserve officiated.

Warden J. W. Chapin delivered an address at the entertainment of Charter Oak Lodge, N. E. O. P., last evening. Others who took part were Edward Dineen and Mr. Germain.

Charles Audley, liveryman, of 15 Audubon Street, is looking for the man who victimized him to the amount of $20 or thereabout recently, giving him a worthless check for that amount.

Members of Admiral Foote Post, G. A. R., gave a farewell reception to E. W. Sperry at his home on Temple Street, Tuesday evening. Mr. Sperry sails for the West Indies on October 26.

The Daughters of the Scotia Auxiliary of Clan McLeod No. 11, Order of Scottish Clans, will give their first annual concert and dance in Clan McLeod's Hall, 400 State Street, next week Friday.

The United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners gave a reception to the members last evening. Master Workman J. C. Martin, in a speech, said that at present hod carriers were earning better wages than carpenters.

A general committee for the fair of Sacred Heart parish to be held November 8-25, was chosen last night. It is composed of Fathers McKee, Early and Synnott and Messrs. Stackpole, John Duffy, J. D. Cunningham, John McAvaney and M. Malloy.

The subject of the Yale-Princeton debate at Princeton on December 6 will be: "Resolved, That in all matters of state legislation of a general character a system of referendum should be established similar to that now established in Switzerland." Yale has the choice of sides.

Friends of the Ladies' Seamen's Friend Society are earnestly requested to aid that institution in replenishing the ships' libraries. Good readable books or money for the same will be most gratefully received. Leave with Mrs. Henry Champion, 270 Crown Street.

At the indoor games of the Pastime Athletic Club, held at Meriden last night, J. O. Brien, a New Haven boy, won the one mile run in 4:11, and the two mile run in 13:10 1-2, beating Walsh, the crack flyer who was a scratch man in each contest.

Michael L. Reynolds and his bartender, Patrick Lyons, at 33 Greene Street, who are charged with violation of the Sunday Liquor Law, had their cases continued in the City Court this morning until October 11 as Mr. Reynolds is sick and unable to appear in court.

Henry Konold, the coal dealer, has filed a claim against the estate of the late H. H. Hanscom for $4,100. He claims that he rented some land near Hanscom's ship yard to the ship builder, and although he used it for 13 years, he never paid a cent of the rent.

Col. Doherty, who was chief marshal of the L. O. O. F. parade in Waterbury on Tuesday, has sharply criticized the members of the various cantons who deserted the parade when rain began to fall. He says: "The cantons are the military branches in order and as such it had been supposed by me that they would have regard for military regulations. It seems to me altogether strange and remarkable, aside from the annoyance to me, that military men should be frightened by a drizzling rain."