Aged Man Found Dead, Victim of Heart Attack

Charles Audley, 70 years old, 4263 Cloverdale St., was found dead in his home, apparently from heart failure, late yesterday afternoon by a neighbor, Jerry Lubidich, 4226 Cloverdale St. Lubidich told the police that he last saw Audley on Sunday and fearing that something was amiss went to his home today, broke down the door and found him dead in his bed. The body was taken to the county morgue.

Mr. Audley is survived by two nephews, H. A. Audley, 328 16th Ave. N., and F. A. Audley, Glencairn Hotel.
