

Sales by Auction.

On Friday the 12th April, 1839, at six o'clock in the evening, at Mr. John Smith's, the Dog and Partridge, Newton Heath:

EIGHT COTTAGES, and a small PLOT
OF LAND, in Collyhurst, Manchester: contents, 560 square yards; rental, £33. 2s. 8d. subject to a ground rent of £9. 6s. 9d.—For further particulars apply to CAISTOR & FARNWORTH, solicitors, Princess-street, Manchester.

MR. AUDLEY begs respectfully to inform Timber Merchants, Builders, and the Public, that his Extensive SALE of OAK, ASH, and other Valuable TIMBER, growing on Butterson Estate, which was particularised in large handbills and newspapers to have taken place on the 21st instant, at the Roebuck Inn, in Seabridge, but was unavoidably postponed, WILL POSITIVELY TAKE PLACE, without any alteration, at the said inn, on Tuesday next, April 2d, 1839; sale to commence at five o'clock.—27, Iron Market, Newcastle, March 25, 1839.

Woollen Rags.

By Mr. STAMP, at the respective Warehouses, as under, at Hull, on Thursday the 4th April, 1839, at three o'clock precisely (to commence at the Union Wharf, High-street, Hull), in lots to suit purchasers:

TWO HUNDRED and TWENTY-NINE
BALES of White, and 1,645 of Coloured WOOLLEN RAGS, lying as follows, viz.:—

190 Bales White	} At the Union Wharf High-street.
942 „ Coloured
39 „ White	} At Mr. N. Levitt's Warehouse, High-
206 „ Coloured
337 „ Coloured,	at the Dock Company's Warehouse,
	Old Dock Side.

Further particulars may be had of Messrs. Morehouse, Brown, and Hubbersty, High-street, Hull; or the Auctioneer.

Sale of Valuable Oak Timber.

TO BE SOLD BY TICKET,

At the house of Mrs. Allen, the Child of Hale Inn, Hale, in the county of Lancaster, on Thursday the 11th of April, 1839, at two o'clock in the afternoon precisely:

THE following Lots of OAK TIMBER, marked with the scribe, growing on lands in the townships of Hale and Halewood, subject to such conditions as will be then produced:—

Lot 1. Eighty Oak Trees, numbered from 1 to 80
Eighteen Cyphers.

Lot 2. Seventy-five Oak Trees, numbered from 1 to 75
Eight Cyphers.

These lots are growing on lands known by the name of the Small Ends.

Lot 3. Ninety-eight Oak Trees, numbered from 1 to 98
Twenty-four Cyphers.

This lot is growing on lands known by the name of Hale Bank.

Lot 4. Eighty Oak Trees, numbered from 1 to 80
Fourteen Cyphers.

Lot 5. One Hundred Oak Trees, numbered from 1 to 100
Twenty-eight Cyphers.

Ninety Oak Trees, ditto from 1 to 90
Twenty-five Cyphers.

Lots 4 and 5 are growing on lands in Halewood, in the occupation of Mr. James Rose and others.

Lot 6. One Hundred and Twenty-three Oak Trees, } 1 to 123 numbered from } Forty-five Cyphers.

This lot is growing on the Old Hutt Farm.

Lot 7. One Hundred and Ten Oak Trees, numbered } 1 to 110